T. J. CROWE SAYS HE WILL APPEAR FOR JURY QUIZ

Promises to Accept Subpoena Today.

Thomas J. Crowe, president of the sanitary district during the profection period, when the pay rolls creaked under the burden of 4,800 employees, announced last night that he would accept service of a subpoena this afternoon to appear as a witness before the special grand jury. Subpoena servers sought in vain for Mr. Crowe during the day. He was wanted as a material witness before the special jury, which opened an investigation yesterday into conditions at the sanitary district while Mr. Crowe was the presiding officer.

Mr. Crowe denied that he had been trying to elude the detectives under the command of Sheridan A. Brown, chief jury investigator, who visited his home, his private office and political haunts in search of him. He announced that he had returned from a trip to Indianapolis and would be available today.

"I will be in parlor A of the Hotel Sherman between 2 and 2:30 o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon," he said. "I can be served with a subpoena at that time if the grand jury wants me."

Inquiry Ends Under Way.

Despite the absence of Mr. Crowe, who was defeated in the November election, the grand jury quiz was officially started by First Assistant State's Attorney Frank J. Loesch with the calling as witnesses Howard W. Wain, now president of the district, and Lawrence F. King, a trustee, who was chairman of the employment committee.

Mr. Elmore's appearance was reported as a pledge of cooperation with the grand jury investigation. He promised to give the prosecutors and the jurors all available information within his control as well as a copy of the audit of the district's books as soon as it is completed.

It was reported that he told the jurors the pay roll of the district numbered 4,800 employees just before his term. It was then reduced to 1,000 and has now been pruned to about 1,100 employees. The district was as effectively operated with a maximum of 1,500 employees, he is reported to have said.

All in Confusion.

Mr. Elmore also told of the muddled financial situation of the board due to the blocking by court procedure of the $770,000 bond issue. He told the jurors that everything at present at the board is in "confusion."

Attorney Roy Massena, personal attorney for Mr. Elmore, accompanied him to the grand jury room.

Mr. King, who signed an immunity waiver, spent most of the afternoon with the jury and will return again today. His knowledge of the inner workings of the board was limited, he is reported to have told the jurors, because of the fact that he was not a member of the "ring in power."

King Tells of Surprise.

Trustee King also told the jurors that he never suspected the pay roll of the district was loaded down with 4,800 employees, even though he was a member of the employment committee. He explained that the commission, by saying that the commission never held a meeting. He corroborated President Elmore's testimony that a pay roll carrying not more than 1,500 employees would be sufficient to operate the district.

Project on Which Trustee King Was Questioned at Length was the building of McCormick boulevard. He was asked to explain, if he could, what he could do about the district from this road building project.

Another phase of the investigation was to do with the auditing system of the board and the employment of the board. Mr. E. Z. Gore, former president of the Chicago crime commission, was called as a witness during the investigation. The board has six members auditing concerns on the pay roll.

Trustees Are Summoned.

Practically every member of the sanitary district was placed under subpoena yesterday just prior to the board meeting. Investigator Brownau appeared at the board room and after a painful game of hide and seek with the trustees handed out subpoenas as follows:

POLICE DRIVE ON CRIME IS GIVEN COURT BACKING

Judge Refuses to Free Prisoners.

What a day! Judge Frank Comerford turning down 300 applications for writs of habeas corpus and Deputy Police Commissioner John Stege able to stage the crooks' parade before 600 onlookers! Chicago a crime ridden city? Indeed not, Deputy Stege declared in explaining the phenomena of yesterday. Chicago has turned over not a new leaf but a whole new library.

Three thousand prisoners, killers, safebreakers, burglars, stickups, auto thieves, shoplifters, panders, rapists, pickpockets, and petty thieves of all kinds in cells and not a court order to interfere with police business did more than amaze Deputy Stege. It amazed every one else, veteran police reporters, too, and it afforded a show such as the public has never before witnessed in Chicago.

Means 100 More in Prison.

"This day's business means more than 100 men going to the penitentiary," Stege stated. "It means that scores of crimes have been prevented. It means that the day has come when crime is no longer to go unpunished." The major purpose of the exhibition of criminals, actual, potential, and hitherto uncaught, was that victims of crimes might come to police headquarters and pick out the perpetrators. They had 3,000 men to pick from yesterday.

All Sunday, day, evening, and night, the detectives combed the city for wrongdoers. Every place of disrepute was visited and many places of repute as well, theaters, dining rooms, and ballrooms being looked over by detectives, as well as poolrooms, beer flats, soft drink parlors, cigar stores, etc.

Every Cell Is Crowded.

By morning every police cell in the city was not only filled but overcrowded. It was a cleanup of unprecedented proportions in Chicago and it followed the arrest of twenty-three Negroes Friday and Saturday in a crime headquarters raid that yielded all but one of the participants in the bank robbery that resulted in the slaying of Special Policeman Martin French.

Judge Comerford was acting chief justice of the Criminal court, due to the illness of Chief Justice John J. Sullivan. He had hardly reached his chambers before he was swamped with applications for writs.

"Assign them all to me," Judge Comerford directed Clerk Dave Wolf, setting aside the usual custom of assigning writs and cases to all judges in rotation.

Judge Talks to Lawyers.

He assembled the lawyers who were trying to get clients out of jail—lawyers talking of "constitutional rights" among themselves as they shouldered one another to get nearest the judge's bench.

"Under the law you have a right to file the applications for the writs and I must issue them," Judge Comerford stated. "But under the law I may exercise my discretion about granting any one freedom on a writ and I choose to exercise my discretion in behalf of the law abiding people of Illinois."

"I will resolve all doubts in favor of the police and will give the police all the time they ask to investigate any prisoner they desire to keep in custody. Commissioner Russell has assured me that any one in custody who doesn't deserve to be in jail will be released. The people of Chicago want results and we're here to put a stop to crime and that's what this court will try to do in cooperation with the police."

Lawyers Don't Insist.

Not a lawyer insisted on the constitutional rights of his client. Not one persisted in the desire for a writ. They had no place else to go, the Circuit and Superior judges referring all writ seeking lawyers to the Criminal court.

"That's the teamwork," Deputy Stege exclaimed. "New to business." The prisoners were first put through the bureau of identification where their finger prints and Bertillon measurements were checked, and where pictures were on hand. Then the 3,000 were ready to face the victimized public.

In the new police headquarters building at 11th and States streets is a specially designed showup room. Nine men at a time march on to a platform where footlights and headlights gleam on them, and a scale behind them gives their height. This room yesterday was filled, more than

OFFICER FORGIVES RUM CRAZED MAN WHO KILLED HIM

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Shortly before lying here today from wounds inflicted by a drink crazed man, Policeman John F. McAuliffe, 23, asked his mother to promise that he would not allow prosecution of the man who shot him.

Samuel Jenkins, who shot himself above the heart after firing on the youthful officer Saturday night, has been charged with murder. They had been brought together to a hospital operating room; there Jenkins saw the man he had mortally wounded, and said, "Forgive me, mister; I didn't know."

Without hesitation, McAuliffe smiled weakly and answered "Sure." His mother was called as death approach. "He shot me, mother, and he shot himself," the son whispered. "But he didn't know what he was doing. They mustn't prosecute him. Promise me that you won't let them."

A guard has been detailed to watch Jenkins, lest he kill himself when he learns of his victim's death.

15 BOOTLEGGERS ORDER DRY SPIES TO LEAVE TOWN

Cedar City, Utah, Jan. 21.—(U.P.)—The majesty of law holds no terror for the bootleggers of this mining camp.

Fifteen of them appeared at the county jail and ordered a squad of federal agents to leave town.

Sheriff J. C. Leigh ordered the mob to disperse and arrested one of the federal agents who spoke out of turn.

"I can whip the best man in your crowd," he shouted.

The bootleggers drew straws for the opportunity of meeting the dry agent. Merrill Sherret won and the last fight resulted in the defeat of the federal man.

ney general's office, it was announced in Washington, was on the way here to report to United States Attorney George E. Q. Johnson, and to investigate the situation, and at Springfield, Ill., Louis L. Emswiler announced that he would take an active part in the controversy. He planned to hold a conference with officers of the Pure Milk association today.

Thirty-one Plants Involved.

A report from the health department last night said that thirty-one plants in Illinois and Wisconsin, representing a daily delivery of 1,250,000 pounds of milk, were then involved in the war. All shipments of milk to replace that being withheld were coming from plants approved by the health department and under inspection, according to Dr. Keel.

Threatened investigations did not seem to dampen the efforts of the striking farmers. Picketing became widespread throughout the milk producing territory of northern Illinois, southern Wisconsin and northern Indiana. State highway police, who patrolled the territory in northern Illinois yesterday, reported last night that the farmers had increased their picketing forces and that they had practically thrown a cordon around the city. They found groups of farmers picketing the highways on practically all of the important roads.

Strikers have so effectively blocked the transportation of milk along the north shore that the Bowman company of Chicago filed an injunction in the Lake county Circuit court yesterday in order to curb the activities of the farmers. A temporary injunction was granted by Circuit Judge Claire C. Edwards restraining eight farmers and "their confederates" from interfering in any way with the business of the Bowman company. The injunction prohibits picketing, the obstruction of the company's property, and does not even allow the defendants to influence other farmers in the sale of their milk to the company.

Sheriff Seizes Notices.

Notices were served by Sheriff L. A. Doolittle yesterday afternoon on the following eight men, named in the injunction bill as defendants: Vernon Balesky, Lake Zurich; J. H. Depke, Wauconda; Leslie Dietmeyer and Ferdinand Finster, Wadsworth; Roy Olson, Russell; Frank Gleason, E. J. Cunningham and O. L. Rockenback, Gurnee.

Later in the day it was reported that the farmers are planning to get the injunction set aside.

In the bill the Bowman company declared that there was a shortage of milk in Chicago and in other towns served by the company. The bill set forth that authorities in Lake and Cook counties have either been unable or unwilling to give the protection to the company that was necessary in order to get milk through to Chicago. The company declared that unless the court aided, many of the plants must be closed and the company would lose on its investment, totaling $5,700,000.

Farmers Halt Truck.

Reports show that no milk was permitted to cross Lake county if it was going to Chicago companies that had refused to pay the farmers their price of $3.50. One tank truck carrying 12,500 pounds of milk was stopped at Hart Day, Ill. The farmer was ordered to get out of the truck and to run to the ground. This was thought to be the only truck that any company, not willing to pay the price demanded, had attempted to take across Lake county yesterday.

Chicago companies suffered their heaviest losses from dumping in Wisconsin. Automobile loads of Wisconsin and Illinois farmers picketed the highways leading to and from receiving stations in the southern part of the state. Ten automobile loads of Illinois farmers picketed around Elkhorn, Wis., dumped 25,000 pounds of milk from cans being hauled to the United Milk Products plant at Elkhorn. This company sells milk to the Bowman company in Chicago.

At the Springfield Creamery, Springfield, Wis., 16,000 pounds of milk were poured from cans loaded in a box car. The milk was ready to be shipped to Chicago.

Near the Wisconsin-Illinois state line thirty men dumped two tank trucks loaded with about 25,000 pounds of milk. The trucks had just crossed the line when the pickets on United States highway 41 stopped the drivers and destroyed the milk.

Dump 11,000 Pounds of Milk.

Another truck carrying 11,000 pounds of milk was dumped in Walworth county, Wisconsin, according to a report from Burlington. A shot was fired at the pickets by James Block, owner of the truck. While he went for help, the striking farmers poured the milk into the snow.

Emil Letzow, a farm hand, was taken from his truck by pickets near Bartlett, Ill. He was beaten by the strikers and the milk he was hauling was poured over his body, it was reported.

Two Chicago bound tank trucks, one belonging to the Borden company, were stopped at Urdia, five miles west of Elgin, yesterday. The faucets were opened and 25,000 pounds of milk was allowed to run into the ditches.

Six thousand more pounds were dumped near Bartlett by four automobile loads of strikers.

A report from Elgin said that picketing there was so thoroughly done yesterday that the B. S. Pearsall Buttery company did not get a single drop of milk at its receiving plant.

It was reported to the Chicago health department that 101 cans, containing 6,000 pounds of milk, were dumped on Higgins road near Lombard, Ill., yesterday. It was being brought to the Ogden, Kraml and Lichhelm dairy companies in Chicago.

At McHenry several hundred pounds of milk was destroyed. Several cans were taken from a railroad car entered by strikers, it was reported.

Truck Load Is Stolen.

A truck load of bottled milk, owned by Sprague & Mine Dairy company of Lockport, Ill., was stolen yesterday near Joliet. Walter Johnson, the driver of the truck, was forced by five men to turn it over to them. Two of them drove it on into the town. Late yesterday afternoon the truck was found abandoned one-half mile north of Joliet. The milk had not been harmed. The company could offer no explanation, since it is not involved in the strike, and the milk is sold in Joliet.

Four hundred dairy farmers, members of the Lake County (Indiana) Pure Milk association, yesterday stopped the shipment of their 100,000 pounds of milk normally sent to Chicago each day and began picketing the highways to prevent milk from crossing the county. At Dyer Ind., 3,000 pounds of milk were destroyed. Sheriff Joe Kyle escorted six trucks safely across the county yesterday, despite the fact that 300 out of the 400 association members were on duty as pickets.

Mayor Thompson declared yesterday that he is firmly set against increasing the price of milk on the grounds that it would mean a boost of $5,475,000 in Chicago's annual milk bill.

Wives Seek Liberty from Two Brothers.

A double wedding followed by a two couple home arrangement developed yesterday into a pair of divorce bills being filed in the Superior court against Robert and Alfred La Perla, brothers. The plaintiffs, both represented by Attorney Samuel Rothman, are Mrs. Gemma La Perla and Mrs. Mary La Perla, who left their husbands and their residence at 2922 North Lotus street on Thursday.

"The trouble," said Attorney Rothman, "is the outcome of a sound economic principle proving to be a faulty sociological experiment. The brothers, who are partners in the tailoring business, are thrifty. They tried to save money by carrying the partnership into their domestic lives—and they lost their wives."

In Double Wedding.

Seven years ago, Robert and Alfred La Perla, were both engaged in adjacent courtships. One automobile could carry four passengers so they started making double dates. On July 8, 1912, there was a double wedding, at the expense of a single ceremony.

The two couples moved into a bungalow at 2922 North Lotus street. They needed only one box, instead of two, one telephone served for all; there was only one furnace for two men to tend and the coal bills were cut in half from what they might have been.

Robert and Alfred got up in the morning together, had breakfast together, went to work together, came home together, and at night the two couples sat in the living room together.

Talk Work at Home.

"The brothers sat around the house at night and 'talked shop,'" Attorney Rothman related. "They had more in common with each other than either had with his respective wife. The wives, from what they tell me, resented this lack of attention from their husbands. There were quarrels."

The divorce bills, almost identical except for the first names, charge cruelty.

GUATEMALA CITY, Jan. 21.—Heeding the ultimatum given by President Lázaro Chacón that the garrison at Quetzaltenango must surrender by six o'clock this morning or the city would be fired upon, Col. Mariano Casado, commander who had joined the rebel forces, escaped during the night with his principal followers, said to number 400. They fled, presumably to the frontier of Mexico, after looting the city. An official government bulletin says that large sums of money were carried off by the rebels.

The government troops entered the city of Quetzaltenango in the early hours of the morning, headed by Gen. Margarito Ariza, and were welcomed by the population. Col. Casado was not a resident of Quetzaltenango and the citizens were not in favor of the movement against the government.

Three leaders captured at Mazatenango were tried by court martial and executed. Others captured at Retalhuleu were treated likewise. Juan F. Rivas, leader of the entire movement, has not yet been captured. Jose R. Flores, Rivas' chauffeur, was captured at Pucall. He said the revolutionary chief had abandoned his automobile. Government troops are pursuing and expect to apprehend him tomorrow.

News of the capture of Quetzaltenango, and thus the end of the revolution, was celebrated in the capital by the ringing of bells and blowing of whistles.

SURGERY MAY GIVE FEET TO FOOTLESS CHILD

A 5 year old girl, born without feet, may run and play like other children if surgeons at the University of Illinois College of Medicine are successful in a series of operations by which they hope to form the girl's muscles into substitutes for feet.

Dr. Henry Bascom Thomas, professor of orthopedic surgery at the college, said he believes the operations feasible although they have never before been attempted. The child's name is withheld by the surgeon. He said he is hopeful that through a series of operations after undergoing the operations, she may be able to use her muscles to walk like a normal child.

WHEELER AND WALSH APPEAR IN "GIMME" ROLE

Immaculate Ones Block Bill Affecting Purses.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Those noted tribunes of the people, Senators Thomas J. Walsh (Mont.) and Burton K. Wheeler (Idaho), have stirred up a hornet's nest in congress by obstructing a piece of nationally beneficial legislation from motives involving, in part, their personal and pecuniary interests.

Senator Walsh, aided and abetted by his colleague, has succeeded in blocking the senate from passing the bill to acquire the Yosemite lands by condemnation. The bill would condemn privately owned lands in all national parks including the Walsh and Wheeler summer homes in Glacier National park.

At Perils Timber.

The action of the house resulted from the imminence of lumbering operations on 13 square miles of privately owned lands in the Yosemite park covered with enormous sugar pines and yellow pines. The lumber company owning the tract is now operating on its lands adjoining the park and plans to begin operations within the park on April 1 next. Unless the 13 square miles are acquired by the government, the lumber ax will seriously mar the beauty of the park.

Former Ambassador Robert Underwood Johnson and other volunteers interested in the national parks, offered to donate $1,000,000 toward the purchase of the Yosemite lands. The house incorporated in the interior department appropriation bill an authorization to purchase or condemn private lands in national parks to the total amount of $3,000,000 when needed by donations by citizens. In this way, it was thought, the government could acquire not only the Yosemite tract, but eventually $1,000,000 of privately owned property in other parks, valued altogether at $6,000,000.

Walsh Seeks Bill.

In the senate, Senator Walsh succeeded in having the authorization to condemn the lands stricken from the bill, leaving only the authority to purchase. The house refused to accept the amendment and the senate without the power to condemn private owners would exact exorbitant prices of the government. The senate refused to recede and the two houses are now deadlocked.

The senate debate disclosed Senator Walsh actuated by a desire to deprive the government of the power to condemn his summer home and the property of constituents in Glacier park, which is in Montana.

"Prior to the time when the park was created," he said, "I acquired a building site, a part of a patent, at the head of the lake and constructed there in the year 1910 a very comfortable summer home. I may add that since 1900 my family have been accustomed to spend their summer vacations in that neighborhood, living in the house at the head of the lake since it was constructed. It is proposed to take my home away from me, if the secretary of the interior does as proposed, and burn down the house or turn it over to some one else."

His Family Comes First.

Senator Walsh was reminded that the law he would be permitted to occupy the property even if it should be condemned during his life. "In other words," retorted Senator Walsh, "they come in and condemn my home there, and after they have condemned it and acquired it, they will give me a lease of it on the balance of my life, but my right of life is getting to be rather small. I have a daughter who has been getting there for 30 years, and is as much attached to the place as I am."

Marion Claire Bride

Marion Claire and Henry G. Weber, members of the Chicago Civic Opera company were married at noon yesterday. She is 24, a new singer, who has won acclaim here, and he is 27, and an assistant conductor. The ceremony was performed in Miss Claire's suite at the Congress hotel.

Miss Claire is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wright Cook. Mr. Cook is a Chicago attorney. Mr. Weber is the son of Mrs. Ida Weber and the late George A. Weber, wagon manufacturer. Although the home of both was Chicago, they first met in Vienna as students.

The bride, wearing a scarlet crepe dress and a felt hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of orchids and lilies, was attended by Miss Dema E. Harshbarger, her concert manager, William Weber, uncle of the bridegroom, attended Mr. Weber.

A wedding breakfast for 15 was served following the ceremony after which Mr. Weber and his bride left for Boston where they will make their first professional appearance as man and wife next Monday, when Miss Claire will sing "Lohengrin" and her husband will conduct.

as I am. I have a couple of grandchildren who are delighted with the place, and we do not care to sell."

"I understand there is no intention whatever of condemning the senator's land," Senator Reed Smoot (Rep., Utah) interjected.

"Of course, I do not ask any special privilege," said Senator Walsh, but the senate had been touched by his appeal and voted to stand pat against the house program for saving the Yosemite big trees.

WEST APPROVED FOR CABINET BY VOTE OF 53 TO 27

Senate Radicals of Both Parties Oppose Him.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—President Coolidge's appointment of Roy O. West of Chicago as secretary of the interior won the approval of the senate today by a vote of 53 to 27.

The negative vote included the radicals and near radicals. It was about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. Most of the recognized leaders in both parties supported Mr. West. The Democrats did not make a party issue of the matter. After the action was taken the senate voted down a motion to make the roll call public.

Glenn Defends West.

During the closing debate, Senator Otis P. Glenn (Rep., Ill.) made a defense of Mr. West, and Senator John J. Blaine (Rep., Wis.) urged rejection of the appointment. Altogether, during the three days that the matter was before the senate the debate occupied nearly ten hours.

In effect, the senate, by its action, held that Mr. West's former ownership of stock in utility companies and former connections of his law firm with public lands, oil leases, reclamation and irrigation, Indian affairs and other matters which concern the far western states, the members of congress from that area are insistent that the secretary of the department be selected from their own region.

Louis S. Cates of Salt Lake City, Utah, a mining engineer, identified with copper interests and a friend of Mr. Hoover's, is considered a leading possibility for the post. Mr. Cates, who is a former president of the American Mining Congress, is backed by Senator Reed Smoot (Rep., Utah) and others in the west.

CHICAGOAN GETS 6 YEAR SENTENCE FOR STOCK FRAUD

Dispatches from Wilmington, Del., yesterday stated that Robert E. Webster, 31 years old, of Chicago, had been sentenced to serve six years in the Atlanta penitentiary and fined $20,000 after conviction of stock fraud. It was charged that Webster and another man, G. A. Sprague, obtained 600 shares of Hercules Powder stock from Prof. A. E. Rand of Brown university, Providence, R. I., by posing as officials of the company. They claimed the stock was to be exchanged for other certificates. Rand had the men arrested when the stock did not arrive. No record of Robert E. Webster could be located here last night.

DR. RONGETTI'S APPEAL BOND IS SET AT $25,000

Bond of $25,000 was set yesterday for Dr. Amante Rongetti, former proprietor of the Ashland Boulevard hospital, who is under a 1 to 14 year sentence in the penitentiary for murder by abortion. Judge Robert E. Gentzel, the trial judge, set the bond in accordance with the law, as pointed out by Attorney William Scott Stewart, that a defendant in anything less than a capital case is entitled to bond pending appeal.

Gloria Gould Bishop Wins Divorce in Reno, Nev., Court

Reno, Nev., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Gloria Gould Bishop, daughter of the late George Jay Gould, whose elopement with Henry A. Bishop Jr., son of a wealthy New Yorker, took place on Sept. 18, 1923, was granted a divorce in the District court today on grounds of extreme cruelty.

The decree was granted on an amended complaint which was filed shortly before Mrs. Bishop went into court. The amended complaint is almost similar to the original bill, but eliminates a few allegations which might be taken as a reflection on Bishop.

Custody of the daughter Gloria, 3 1/2 years old, was granted to Mrs. Bishop and the father was not asked to contribute anything toward the child's support. The father has the right to visit his child at reasonable periods, however.

Mrs. Bishop testified that her husband used insulting language toward her and on numerous occasions showed a lack of respect. On one occasion, she said, he grabbed her by the throat and made her fear he might do her harm. He used abusive language to her and respecting her and members of her family, she said.

On one occasion when they had had words Mrs. Bishop said she started for her room and Bishop prevented her from going there. She became frightened by his attitude and declared to him she was going to leave. He seemed to come to his senses then, she explained, and told her she did not need to go, that he would leave the next morning.

This quarrel occurred on the second anniversary of their marriage, Mrs. Bishop said.

The Spirit of Youth and the new KIMBALL

THE bright, inspiring character of the new Kimball piano designs lies partly in their being typically new—reflecting the forward-looking spirit of the times, and in keeping with the new motifs in art and decoration.

But there is more than mere novelty in these new styles. They represent the farthest advance yet attained in the technical skill that goes into the development of a perfect tone. The resources of all the experience gathered in many years of manufacturing are revealed in each of these beautiful instruments.

One of many examples is the delightful little "Junior" Upright—only 3 feet 8 inches high—showing all the daintiness and compactness that appeal to modern taste, yet possessing a tonal volume that only experienced craftsmanship could make possible in so small a space.

Why not come and hear it? And, when you come, let us show you the beautiful period and classic modern grands, the new uprights and players. You will greatly enjoy a demonstration whenever you come.

T. J. CROWE SAYS HE IS READY TO FACE JURY QUIZ

Promises to Take Service of Subpoena Today.

gust W. Miller for today; Frank J. Link and John J. Touhy for Wednesday, Henry A. Berger and James M. Whalen for Thursday. Martin J. O'Brien, former chief clerk, also was to have been subpoenaed for today, but could not be found. An unverified report said he was in Florida.

Assistant State's Attorneys George Callaghan and Thomas Slusser are assisting in the sanitary investigation as well as in the police graft inquiry, which is to be conducted along with the sanitary investigation. E. Thurston, a division manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, supplied the jury yesterday with records of the so-called Mont Tennesse racing syndicate.

TRUSTEES TAKE ACTION

Trustees of the sanitary district yesterday acted to straighten out their tangled system of bookkeeping in an endeavor to learn whether they will be able to meet the January pay rolls, now a week overdue, and to check on reports that funds had been juggled and money misappropriated.

A report of the finance committee stated that the district now has on hand the sum of $4,542.29 of which $1,550,027 has been turned over to the district recently by the county. The committee admitted that it was unable to ascertain without an audit whether this sum now on hand is money received by the sale of construction bonds or whether it represents moneys raised by taxation for operation and maintenance.

New Committee Created

The report contained an order which was passed by the board to create a committee consisting of President Howard W. Elmore, the chairman of the finance and judiciary committees, and five other persons which are to be selected from a list of bankers, architects, and other professional men to audit the books for the purpose of determining the distribution of disbursements between the accounts.

The financial report, presented by Trustee Rose A. Woodhull, stated that the committee didn't know when additional funds would be available from tax levies or other sources with which to pay the principal and interest on maturing bonds because of the real estate reassessment. On the recommendation of the committee, the board ordered that four separate funds be set up and designated as follows: "Sinking funds for bonds," "corporate purposes," "land damage bond account," and "construction bond account."

The special committee of trustees and business men is to determine distribution between these accounts and the clerk is ordered to make a daily report of the balance in these funds.

Some Hope for Pay Rolls

Whether the district will be able to meet the overdue pay rolls depends upon the allocation of the revenues received from the county. A preliminary calculation indicates that $487,407 of this fund may be devoted to current expenses and $1,112,519 for bonds.

The board ordered its clerk to de-

The Day in Congress

SENATE

The senate, by a vote of 53 to 27, confirmed the appointment of Roy C. West as secretary of the interior.

Senate leaders made plans to break down the threatened filibuster against the cruiser bill.

Discussion of prohibition continued in connection with consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill, the debate being regarded as part of the filibuster against the cruiser bill.

The senate appropriations committee gave a hearing on the provision in the army appropriation bill as passed by the house for increased funds for the Mississippi barge line.

HOUSE

The Hawley resolution giving federal approval to the Chicago centennial fair was passed by the house.

Increased duties on sugar were sought at the tariff hearings before the house ways and means committee.

Although it has been previously indicated that the $3,000,000 for land damage settlements has been spent, the board ordered that the unexpended balance of this fund be determined. It also ordered a report of the money received from the sale of all bonds issued for construction purposes and directed the clerk to indicate plainly on all vouchers and warrants the account against which each is issued.

The board's action was taken upon the recommendation of Treasurer Frederick H. Rawson.

Workers Must Work

President Elmore announced after the meeting that hereafter all employees will be required to sign an affidavit each time salaries are received. The affidavit will attest that the employee has performed faithfully the work allotted to him. In case any "soldiering" is discovered, the president stated that guilty employees will be liable to a sentence of from 1 to 14 years on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

PAINTERS' UNION CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

The government's case against Arthur W. Wallace and ten of his fellow members of Painters' District Council No. 14, charged with violating the anti-trust law, will be given to the jury in federal Judge James H. Wilkerson's courtroom some time before noon today.

Wallace, who is secretary-treasurer of the council, and the other defendants, were accused yesterday of exacting tribute in restraint of trade from kitchen cabinet manufacturers by first Assistant United States District Attorney John E. Northup in his closing argument. Through Wallace, Mr. Northup contended, the union forced the manufacturers to pay $2 each on all kitchen cabinets sent to Chicago already painted.

Proceeding Mr. Northup, Attorney David Stansbury argued for the defense that the government administration had "smiled on capital and persecuted union labor." He is defending "1,700 members of the union and their right to work," he said.

The government dismissed charges against one of the defendants, Roy D. Shields, whom they did not link with the conspiracy.

CUTS THROAT WITH KNIFE

Dependent over his failure to find work, Louis Decker, 48 years old, a laborer, tried to commit suicide in his room at 6407 Registon avenue yesterday by slashing his throat with a butcher knife. He is in serious condition at St. Bernard's hospital.

CONGRESS PUTS ITS SHOULDER TO CHICAGO '33 FAIR

Government Will Be Represented Here.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Federal government participation in the Chicago centennial celebration in 1933 is possible under the amended Hawley resolution passed by the house today. As passed, and sent to the senate, the measure not only authorizes the President to invite foreign nations to participate, but opens the way for "suitable representation" of this government at the next world's fair.

The bill came to the house floor under unanimous consent and immediately met with vigorous objection, led principally by Representative Eugene Black (Dem., Tex.), who declared he always will be skeptical of exposition proposals as a responsibility of the Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial fiasco. He pointed out that notwithstanding promises that federal government aid would not be asked for the Philadelphia project, congressional persons eventually to appropriate nearly $2,000,000.

Amendment Tacked On

Representative Louis C. Cramton (Rep., Mich.) then proposed an amendment providing that nothing in the resolution obligates the federal government to any expense in connection with the Chicago Centennial "beyond suitable representation."

Mr. Black reluctantly withdrew his objection and the resolution with the amendment was passed.

"Our experience with the Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial should have convinced congress that we have passed beyond the day of world's fairs," asserted Representative Black when the resolution was called up.

"Chicago will make a success of this project where Philadelphia could not," declared Representative Cramton, pointing out that the government assumed no responsibility under the resolution and that the President would not be authorized to invite foreign nations to participate until the Chicago Centennial corporation had at least $5,000,000 at its disposal.

Points to Past Experience. As an added precaution, Mr. Cramton suggested the amendment which was accepted by Representative Carl Chindblom (Rep., Ill.), in charge of the bill on the floor.

"You can understand," said Representative F. H. La Guardia (Rep., N. Y.), addressing Mr. Chindblom, "why we are skeptical—as a result of the strings we received in Philadelphia."

SEEK A SOLUTION FOR WORLD'S FAIR TRAFFIC PROBLEM

Members of the architectural commission of the 1933 World's Fair convened here yesterday to take up the traffic problem in connection with laying out the grounds for the exposition. In their plans the architects are figuring on an average daily attendance at the fair of 400,000 persons.

"As the peak load is estimated at 1,444,444 persons and automobile parking within the exposition area is not to be considered, the problem of just how to handle the crowds is really shaping the architecture of the fair," a statement issued yesterday from the office of Rufus C. Dawes, chairman of the fair's trustees, stated.

Data submitted by the Illinois Central railroad, the Chicago Surface Line, the Rapid Transit company, and the Yellow Cab company were considered by the architects. Drawings of proposed fair buildings, submitted by members of the commission, were viewed by the centennial's board of trustees.

Harvey Wiley Corbett of New York was elected permanent chairman of the architectural commission at the meeting, which was held in the office of Edward H. Bennett, 40 East Jackson boulevard.

N. Y., addressing Mr. Chindblom, "why we are skeptical—as a result of the strings we received in Philadelphia."

"If at some future time a bill is introduced to provide $2,000,000 or some other amount of subsidy like was extended to the Philadelphia exposition, will you oppose it?" Representative J. C. Schaefer (Rep., Wis.) asked Mr. Chindblom.

"I certainly will," he answered.

BISHOPS' DREAM OF $25,000,000 DRY FUND FADES

Mellon Defies Churchmen and Condemns Plan.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—[Special.]—Anti-Saloon league and Methodist leaders who have undertaken to whip congress into line behind the proposed $25,000,000 increase in Voluntary enforcement appropriations met today.

Responding to Bishop James C. Connelley of the Methodist church, president of the dry league, who, on Saturday, demanded that he unqualifiedly endorse the boost, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon reiterated his disapproval and added that the plan would be a blow, not only at the budget system, but at the principles of good government.

The second setback was the announcement of Senator W. L. Jones (Rep., Wash.), generally recognized as the Anti-Saloon league's spokesman in the senate, that in spite of the stand taken by Bishop Nicholson, he also will continue to oppose the $25,000,000 proposal now pending in the senate.

He Agrees with Mellon.
Senator Jones agreed with Secretary Mellon that no substantial sum should be voted to expand enforcement activities until a survey of the needs of all interested government agencies has been completed.

Meanwhile, senate little navy men who are using the prohibition row to head off the 15 cruiser bill, returned discussion of the $25,000,000 proposal, which is before the senate amendment to the pending de-

PRISON AUTHOR

Scieny appropriation bill, sponsored by Senator W. J. Harris (Dem., Ga.), at 3 o'clock this afternoon, following the executive session in which Secretary of the Interior Roy O. West was confirmed, Senator J. J. Blaine (Rep., Wis.) took the floor and held forth for three and one-half hours, discussing every phase of present day prohibition as well as covering the whole history of "blue law" legislation.

At half past six o'clock tonight, Senator Charles Curtis (Rep., Kan.), the majority leader, sought to secure a unanimous consent agreement to dispose of the Harris amendments and the three substitutes offered in its place at not later than one o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and to dispose of the controversial tax refund amendment not later than three o'clock.

His Attempt Fails.

Falling in that, the leader called for a quorum, but only 35 senators responded and a recess until tomorrow was agreed upon.

In a joint telegram to Secretary Mellon last Saturday, Bishops Cannon and Nicholson and Eugene L. Crawford called upon the cabinet officer to either unqualifiedly endorse the Harris amendment or admit that he was unwilling or unable to enforce prohibition.

Answering the dry trio, Mr. Mellon asserted, as he did in a letter to Senator P. E. Warren, (Rep., Wyo.), chairman of the senate appropriations committee, last week, that it is far more important to provide facilities for clearing congested court dockets than it is to inaugurate a new drive to add to the existing congestion.

Makes Views Clear.

"What I endeavored to point out in my letter to Senator Warren," asserted the secretary, "is that the Harris amendment makes the additional funds available to the prohibition bureau only, and restricts the uses by that bureau, with no discretion in the secretary of the treasury."

"There are now 31,000 liquor cases pending in the federal courts and causing congestion, with no relief in sight. The customs service needs additional guards in the principal ports and the border patrol needs strengthening, while insofar as the coast guard is concerned, Admiral Billard is at present undertaking a survey as to the ships needed to replace a number of destroyers whose usefulness has been pretty nearly exhausted, and is prepared to recommend an increase in the commissioned personnel of the coast guard."

"The Harris amendment would not make funds available for any of these purposes, nor could the additional money provided for be used for the educational purposes which you emphasize in your telegram."

He Asks a Question.

"Under these circumstances, can it be fairly said that an appropriation of $25,000,000, made with these re-

HISTORIC ENGLISH ESTATE IS SOLD; TO BE SUBDIVIDED

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Another historic English estate has just changed hands. The marquess of Albury has sold 25,000 acres of his Savernake forest estate in Wiltshire for about $1,550,000. The property will be re-sold in lots.

This is one of the biggest land deals in recent years and is of great importance, since the greater part of it is made up of good agricultural land ranging from downslands that are famous for their sheep grazing capacity to the rich pastures of the valley of Pewsey.

The sale covers eight villages, parts of four townships, sixty large farms, sixty smaller farms, large sections of two rivers, 2,500 acres of woods and the famous Manton race horse training course.

Restrictions, would of itself constitute an intelligent and effective means of promoting prohibition enforcement."

In his letter the secretary questioned the wisdom of allotting $25,000,000 "to the secretary of the treasury to spend as he sees fit," and asked the bishops and Mr. Crawford "whether you consider it good practice to place so vast a sum in the hands of a public official with unlimited discretion as to its use?"

Such an appropriation, the secretary contended, would "break down the safeguards of the budget system and the effective and proper control which congress exercises over the expenditure of public moneys."

"I think, upon second consideration," the letter concluded, "you will realize that this is not a minor question, but a fundamental one, and that in the long run, whether in the prohibition field or in any other field of government, infinitely more is lost than gained if, for the sake of accomplishing immediately a purpose, no matter how desirable, a fundamental principle of good government and sound practice is violated."

DRAFT PLANS TO BREAK CRUISER BILL FILIBUSTER

Senate Leaders to Force
Vote on Measure.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—[Special.]—Senate leaders made plans today to break down the threatened filibuster against the administration naval cruiser bill.

It was agreed that the first deficiency appropriation bill would be kept before the senate until it is disposed of, which may require as much as two or three days. After that is out of the way it is proposed to keep the cruiser bill continuously before the senate without allowing any other appropriation bills to be called up.

Radicals Seek Delay.

Controversies over prohibition and tax refunds have retarded action on the deficiency appropriation bill. Except for the desire of the radicals to delay the passage of the cruiser measure the appropriation bill probably would have been passed several days ago.

The agricultural appropriation is ready for senate consideration and the army and independent offices bill will be reported within a few days. Under today's agreement of the leaders these will be sidetracked for the present. Unless the cruiser can be brought to a vote some time next week it is proposed to resort to a petition for cloture. Night sessions also are threatened if an open filibuster develops.

Hale Is Not Worried.

Senator Frederick Hale (Rep., Me.), chairman of the naval affairs committee, expressed confidence that the bill will be passed.

DRUGGAN AND LAKE OFFER $100,000 TO SETTLE U. S. TAX SUIT

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Mrs. Mabel G. Rutledge, collector of internal revenue for the northern district of Illinois, has received an offer of $100,000 from Terry Druggan and Frank Lake, beer barons, in an attempt to satisfy claims for almost $550,000 in back income taxes, it was learned yesterday. The offer was forwarded to Washington without comment or recommendation, Mrs. Rutledge said.

Coincident with the offer came the rumor that Druggan and Lake wish to plead guilty to charges of evasion of income tax payments if they are promised small fines in return. United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson announced that the only "break" the two might get would be dismissal by a jury. Plans are being made for a thorough prosecution of both, he said.

Some time ago Druggan and Lake attempted to settle the government's claims with an offer of $50,000, which was refused in Washington. They are being represented in the proceedings by J. E. Garney & Co., federal tax counsellors.

Alexander Hamilton's Bust Back in Hall of Fame

New York, Jan. 21.—[AP.]—The bust of Alexander Hamilton, which was taken from its place in the Hall of Fame at New York university last Tuesday night, was returned to its pedestal today. It was found buried in a vacant lot by a newspaper reporter, who had received a letter directing him where to dig for it. Campus gossip said it was a student prank.

COUNCIL GROUP TO PROBE HIGH PAVING COSTS

High prices paid by the city for poor paving in streets and alleys will be investigated by a subcommittee of the council committee on judiciary and special assessments, it was decided yesterday. The committee will also investigate charges that signatures for the paving of alleys by private contract are obtained by misrepresentation and the advisability of paving the center of streets in which the surface lines are to lay extensions.

Preparation by the corporation council of amendments to the state law is being made which would force property owners to make arrangements to lay stabs for public utility work from the street to the inside of the curbstone whenever a street is to be paved. The amendment will make it mandatory on the property owner to have the work done or the city will do it and add the cost to the paving bill.

The committee named itself as a committee of the whole to go to Springfield to support the passage of an auto drivers' license law.

City to Pay Ousted Police Captain $6,846 Back Salary

Payment of $6,846 to Daniel Murphy, former police captain who was ousted from the police department following the election of Mayor Thompson, was ordered by the city council yesterday. The amount represents his salary from June 12, 1917, when he was discharged, to Jan. 5, 1919, the date of his reinstatement, plus interest at 4 per cent. Murphy was ousted by the civil service commission after he had been charged with allowing vice to flourish in the Chicago avenue police district where he was the commanding officer. He was vindicated by a recent decision of the Appellate court.

Celebrated Parisian Beauty Specialist

urges soap of palm and olive oils to gain a lovely skin

Former celebrated opera star, now famous beauty expert, explains why washing the face correctly is a most important beauty treatment

"In addition to my own beauty aids, I always recommend the soap blended of palm and olive oils. By cleansing the pores thoroughly it leaves the skin in a smooth, healthy condition."

Lina Cavalieri
61, AVENUE VICTOR EMMANUEL III, PARIS

All over the world specialists agree

Not only in America but in Vienna, Berlin, London, Rome—everywhere one finds the same approval and recommendation of this 2-minute beauty treatment. France has made Palmolive one of its two largest selling soaps... think of it, France, the beauty dictator of two hemispheres. And in forty-eight other countries, of all soaps it is the choice, just as it is here in the United States.

A precious formula embodying the precious oils of palm and olive, famous since the days of Cleopatra for prolonging beauty and youth.

Retail Price 10c

LINA CAVALIERI has stepped off the operatic stage to share her beauty knowledge with the world's smartest women.

Enconced in her sumptuous salon, on the Avenue Victor Emmanuel III, Lina Cavalieri tells her patrons of a simple home beauty treatment. "I find," she says, "that a soap blended of palm and olive oils, by cleansing the pores thoroughly, leaves the skin in a smooth, healthy condition."

What Cavalieri has found

Madame Cavalieri has made an extensive study of beauty methods both in Europe and America. "I am visited by some of the most famous beauties of two continents," she says. "In addition to my own beauty products, I always recommend them to use Palmolive Soap."

When dirt, dust, oil, powder and rouge get into the pores they are choked up. To these poisonous secretions Cavalieri attributes blackheads, pimples, enlarged pores, blemishes.

Mme. Cavalieri feels that the unique lather of Palmolive frees those hardening masses of dirt and make-up and leaves the complexion soft and glowing.

Discovered long ago by American specialists

This opinion has long been held by beauty specialists of prominence throughout the United States. They, too, recommend this famous twice-a-day treatment which Cavalieri suggests to her discriminating clientele:

With both hands make a bland lather of Palmolive Soap and warm water. For two minutes, massage this well into the skin. Then rinse, gradually cooling the water to icy temperature. For dry skin, a touch of cold cream. Oily skin is refreshed by an astringent lotion and day cream before make-up is applied.

Unmistakably Parisian, this entrance to Cavalieri's Salon de Beauté, at 61, Avenue Victor Emmanuel III. Here, on an afternoon, one mingles with an interesting and attractive group of women from America and the Continent.

filled. Seats were available for 400 and more than 200 stood throughout the afternoon as men after men—and some women—marched on to the platform.

Tells of Their Records.

"Names and addresses," demanded Chief of Detectives John Egan from each in turn. "What were you arrested for?"

In his hand he had the record of each prisoner.

"You're a burglar. You're a stick-up guy. You're an automobile thief. He told what each was and then he would group all the robbers and invite special attention to them.

Every now and then some one would ask, "Let five see him a little closer; have him turn around," and another crime was marked cleared up on the books. Chief Egan singled out men here and there who gave straight-forward answers and who had no criminal records. He would inquire into the circumstances of their arrest and he would give the order that meant immediate release for that individual.

100 Robberies Cleared Up.
A sullen, sorry lot they were, most of them. Furtive, shifty eyed, dapper, suave, unkempt, one and all they passed in review before the men and women who had been robbed or injured. Dirty or clean, they went back to their cells to await others who might wish to see them and who couldn't get in yesterday.

"We have identifications for perhaps 100 robberies," Stege said. "We found a dozen men wanted in other cities for crimes. We got many men we have been looking for for a long time. The day when the crooks could do their stuff and get away with it has passed in Chicago, and we have given notice that crooks driven out of New York and other cities hadn't better come here.

"This policy is to continue. No letup will take place, and we'll have the criminals in jail so they can't commit crimes."

Rob 4 Filling Stations.
Two armed men ignored the intensive police campaign when they robbed four gasoline filling stations on the west side in quick succession last night. Riding in an automobile the men drove swiftly from place to place. Several detective squads hurried into the west side in an effort to intercept them.

The following all stations were robbed: 4402 West Roosevelt road, robbed of $21; 3434 Ogden avenue, robbed of $80; Division street and Grand avenue, robbed of $62, and 4021 Grand avenue, robbed of $25.

CONDITIONS AT KEELEY HOSPITAL STIR SHUMAKER

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Waving a copy of THE TRIBUNE before members of the St. Joseph County Ministerial association, the Rev. H. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, promised that he would make an immediate investigation of the description of Keeley Institution conditions which THE TRIBUNE published today.

His testimony account by William Edwards revealed the average patient in Keeley Institute for alcoholism today is of a higher class mentally, socially and financially than those treated in the pre-prohibition era.

"I'm not saying the article is misleading," Dr. Shumaker said, "for I don't know. But I shall have an immediate investigation made."

"However, it is a certain portion of the wealthy people who give us one of our greatest problems. They seem to have the idea that the eighteenth amendment was not intended for them. They would deny liquor to poorer men, but reserve to themselves the privilege of getting their liquor from a bootlegger."

"I see no difference between the holdup man who enters a bank and, at pistol point, rifles it of its treasure and the wealthy man who tramples the constitution of the United States under foot by patronizing a bootlegger."

DRIVE ON FELONY WAIVERS FOUND SLOWING COURTS

Reform Council Seeks to Clear Out Jail.

The judicial advisory council, organized to improve civil and criminal court procedure in Cook county, reported yesterday that justice was being retarded by a recent reluctance on the part of judges and prosecutors to accept felony waivers in proper cases.

"As a result of recent public criticism of judges and prosecuting officials, who it was charged were improperly permitting felony waivers," the report says in referring to the Chicago Crime commission's charges against former State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe and three judges formerly in the Criminal court, "the present tendency in the Criminal court has seemingly gone to the other extreme."

Confidence in Swanson.
"We believe that the public has confidence in the present state's attorney and that the courts likewise can act with full confidence in the integrity of his recommendations."

The report was addressed to Chief Justice John J. Sullivan of the Criminal court and State's Attorney John A. Swanson. It was signed by members of the council, Chief Justice Frederick R. De Young of the Illinois Supreme court, Chief Chancellor Denis E. Sullivan of the Superior court, Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher, former State's Attorney John J. Healy, and Ames C. Miller, former president of the Chicago Bar association.

Seek to Clear Jail.
The council made this recommendation for the announced purpose of relieving congestion in the county jail by expediting court procedure. The root of the problem, the report finds, lies in the Municipal courts, where many defendants are held to the grand jury on felony charges who should have been tried in the lower tribunals on misdemeanor complaints.

"The fact," the council writes, "may be found more in our defective mode of procedure than in the failure on the part of the examining magistrate or prosecuting attorney to assume responsibility. To obviate this condition is a matter which is now receiving the attention of the state's attorney and the Municipal court judges, and we have no doubt that appropriate and effective remedies will be applied."

Milkman, Shot as Burglar by Cop, Wins Damage Suit
Policeman Daniel Healy, who killed the gangster Vincent ("Schemer") Drucel was found guilty in a damage suit yesterday growing out of the shooting of a man Healy mistakenly believed to be a burglar. A jury before Judge William J. Fulton returned a verdict of $425 against the policeman, and in behalf of John P. Goerres, a milkman, 1236 West 72d street, who was shot in the arm on March 4, 1927.

U. S. TAX CLAIMS AGAINST WHITE TOTAL $752,267
Taxes, penalties and interest aggregating $194,151 were assessed against the White Faving company and the White Construction company, contractors doing city work under the administration of Mayor William Hale Thompson. It was revealed yesterday in dispatches from Washington. Previously it had been shown that Michael E. White, president of both companies and close friend of Michael J. Foherty, president of the board of local improvements, had been assessed additional taxes, penalties, and interest on his personal tax returns, amounting to $156,886. The total claimed by the government from White and his companions thus is $752,267.

The government charged pay roll stuffing amounting to many hundreds of thousands of dollars. This was done, it is charged, in an effort to defraud the government out of income taxes. All the government claims are being resisted by White.

Profits In Our Property

The story of the amazing growth in values in the property we sell is told graphically by statistics which show increases in value of from 20% to 75% each year over a term of years.

One of our customers bought ten acres from us on which he paid only $1,200 and resold it at a profit of $14,200—or nearly $12 for every $1 invested.

Another bought twenty acres from us for $6,000. This property is now worth more than $60,000—a profit of more than $10 for every $1 invested.

Still another purchaser paid us $2,450 for five acres and sold 1/2 acre of this land for $25,000. He still has left over 4 1/2 acres of valuable property.

You can start today like these people did with a small cash payment and easily pay for your property which should become very valuable while you are paying for it on account of Chicago's rapid growth and our building program.

We will build for you on any of our properties the home of your choice and will take care of all your financing at low cost. Select your location today while you have a wide range, and place the order for your home to be built this Spring or later.

Coughs from Flu May Weaken Your System and Lead to Serious Trouble

You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs croscote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is especially for building up the system after illness. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion may help you avoid flu, but is not sold as a flu remedy. ## GIVE US POLICE! ALDERMEN BACK CITY'S DEMAND

Adequate Force Pledged to Patrol Streets.

Members of the city council yesterday plainly expressed their conviction that Chicago needs immediately a large increase in the size of its police force.

After the finance committee had voted for the appointment of a subcommittee to consider this week the request of Commissioner William F. Russell for an increase, an effort was made to obtain the views of the individual members of the council.

Twenty-two of the aldermen present at yesterday's session of the council agreed that the present force is dangerously understaffed. Many of the councilmen said funds should be provided at once, even if it meant that their plan for a slight decrease in the tax rate had to be forgone. It was hoped, however, that funds for the extra policemen could be obtained this year out of available revenue.

Chairman Names Committee.
Ald. John S. Clark (30th), chairman of the finance committee, named the members of the subcommittee which will determine how many policemen should be added to the force, and where the funds will come from to pay them. Ald. Clark stated he will serve on the committee himself, the other four members being William R. O'Toole (14th), Guy Guernsey (5th), James B. Bowler (35th), and E. I. Frankhauser (49th). Ald. O'Toole is sponsor of the council resolution, now pending before the finance committee, which seeks the immediate addition of 1,000 patrolmen, and the gradual addition of 5,000 more policemen over a period of five years.

"If we can find the money, we will increase the police force," said Ald. Clark. "The council has passed resolutions agreeing to a decrease of the city tax rate by 5 cents, and agreeing not to pass a supplemental budget. I should not like to see either one of these resolutions revoked, but I shall be unprejudiced in seeking a remedy for the present predicament of the police department."

Hearings to Be Public.
It is expected the subcommittee will conduct public hearings, so that the attitude of the citizens and business men, particularly in the outlying wards, may be learned.

Judge Frank Comerford, acting chief justice of the criminal court, yesterday came out forcefully for a substantial increase of the force.

"We have an honest commissioner of police, who has courage and ability," Judge Comerford said. "He can stamp out crime if he is given an adequate force. I say, give him the men. The policy of penny wise and million dollar foolish is false economy. An ounce of crime prevention is worth tons of indigestion of police such as Russell, with an adequate department can carry on a relentless war on known criminal classes, and this will prevent much crime. Give him the men and let him descend on the breeding places of crime, such as beer flats, and gambling dens."

Letters commending Commissioner Russell for his proposal to provide a

ON WAY HERE

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Traveling at the expense of the government of The Netherlands, 8-year old R. H. Tomkins, Jr., a native Japanese, but a future Chicagoan, is expected to arrive in the city today. He will be met by his father, R. H. Tomkins, who has not seen the child since its birth in Java in 1925. Tomkins was forced to leave Java and when he returned to get his baby he found that its mother had taken it to Rotterdam, where, being unable to support it, she placed it in an orphanage.

The Netherlands government finally located Tomkins in Chicago and arrangements were made to send the child to him. The little boy arrived in New York on the S. S. Volendam Sunday, traveling alone, but cared for by the Dutch government.

larger police force continued to pile up on his desk yesterday.

"The additional policemen would be placed in uniform patrolling the streets of every ward in Chicago," the commissioner said yesterday. "We have all the captains and lieutenants and detectives we need but we have a shocking lack of patrolmen, which makes it impossible to give the residential and outlying business districts the best protection."

"If we have many more patrolmen walking beats, it is certain that crime will be prevented. This being true, we will need no more detectives, for there will be less crime to detect."

"I have demonstrated, convincingly to my mind, that Chicago needs at least 1,000 more policemen at once, and 5,000 more in the next five years. Thousands of citizens, from all walks of life, have taken the trouble to make known their own views coinciding with this view, and it is now entirely the responsibility of the city council. I do not believe our aldermen will be willing to fly in the face of such outspoken public approval."

What the Aldermen Think.
Comment from members of the city council interviewed yesterday follows:
E. I. Frankhauser (49th)—"We don't want crime rampant at the cost of tax saving. The people have got to have protection first. I am sure the committee will determine how many additional policemen are necessary and provide the funds to employ them."

James B. Bowler (35th)—"There should be a large increase of patrolmen immediately. The problem of finding revenue for this is a serious one, but we must do it, even if it means that we shall have to provide a special tax, approved by the voters. We have the finest traffic system in the world today, but we have insufficient police to man it properly."

Guy Guernsey (5th)—"No doubt we need more policemen, but on the basis of present population growth, the addition of about 170 to 200 men each year should meet the demand. The trouble is that there are now too many officers and not enough patrolmen."

A. K. Mose (30th)—"We need the additional policemen right now. We shall have plenty of money for them if taxes are equitably adjusted, and I think we should provide for 1,000 more patrolmen to be put on the streets immediately. Out in my ward we never see a patrolman on his beat, and we are not only requesting that more be employed—we demand it."

Sheldon Gowler (9th)—"The inadequacy of Chicago's present police force is felt especially in the outlying districts, such as my ward. I have localities 3 miles long and a mile and a half wide, patrolled by one policeman. I think the public would rather be secure in their homes, and the streets than to be given a paltry tax saving."

Thomas F. Byrne (15th)—"We have been allowing our police force to fall far behind while our population has been increasing. If we can put on 1,000 policemen without increasing taxes we should do it, and I believe a way to finance the plan will be found. I think the council should provide the money, regardless of the method."

John A. Hoellen (47th)—"I favor increasing the Chicago police force. We should have 10,000 policemen to protect the city."

Louis B. Anderson (2nd)—"I am in favor of a substantial increase. We ought to have a permanent method of providing regular increases to the police force, and I think the voters should be permitted to express their attitude on this plan. Meanwhile, we should find means to put on 1,000 additional men at once, even if it is necessary to forego the slight tax reduction."

John A. Massen (48th)—"My ward is underpoliced. I am not decided how many additional policemen should be allowed, nor can I say how the money can be provided, but I favor an inquiry to establish both these points immediately."

Albert E. Loeschner (44th)—"We need more policemen, but I cannot tell how we can find the money for it."

William D. Meyer (18th)—"Provision of an adequate police force is one of the first duties of the city, and the present force is woefully undermanned. We must find some way to take care of this."

Jacob Arvey (24th)—"Chicago should have better police protection, and I will vote for a plan to create a separate tax, apart from any of the other city funds, which will provide for a fully manned department."

John P. Wilson (11th)—"Money for additional policemen should be found, even if it means taking it from other departments where it is not so sorely needed."

Max Adamowski (38th)—"There have been no additions to the police force since 1922, but the population has grown more than 750,000. I'm for more police, no matter what means is found of financing them."

Stanley Adamowski (31st)—"Crime is increasing in spite of all efforts to beat it down. I'm sure my constituents would rather have crime beaten down than to receive a trifling decrease in taxes."

Titus Haffa (43d)—"If we are trying to decrease the tax rate at the cost of providing enough policemen to fight crime—and I'm sure that is the case—then I favor getting the policemen. We need a large increase immediately."

Berthold A. Cronson (4th)—"More policemen will stamp down robbery, holdup, burglary, and rape. Insurance rates will be reduced, and the saving would be many times the small amount which will be saved by the 5 cent decrease in the tax rate."

John Connelley (1st)—"I believe we need more policemen, but not if it means an increase in taxes. There are two months in the year when crime is worst—January and February—and we should find a method of appointing 50 day policemen for this period."

INDICT EX-CLERK OF PROSECUTOR ON TWO CHARGES

Andrew Bender, former clerk in charge of the bond forfeiture department of the state's attorney's office, was named in two true bills voted by the grand jury yesterday. He is to be charged with altering public records and accepting a bribe. The indictments will be returned today.

Bender, a holdover from the Robert E. Crowe administration, was also named yesterday by two other witnesses as having accepted bribes aggregating $1,300 in exchange for altering the court records so that judgments on forfeited bonds could be set aside.

Detectives were unable to find Bender yesterday, although an emissary appeared at the state's attorney's office to post bonds for him. He was told that no bond would be accepted until Bender was in custody.

It was a great show for the strollers and they had almost as much fun as on election night. Pedestrian traffic was blocked fifty deep at 44th street and Broadway, the intersection where Mr. Whalen had established his base of operations. ## TRAFFIC RULES TURN N.Y. RIALTO INTO SPEEDWAY

Sidewalks Jammed and Side Streets Bared.

New York, Jan. 21.—[Special.]—The theatrical district was turned into a speedway tonight as Police Commissioner Grover Whalen's new traffic rules went into effect. There were almost as many policemen as taxicabs between 6th and 9th avenues from 39th to 53d streets. Loaded taxis and limousines raced merrily where an hour before they had crawled and the affable Mr. Whalen sat high up in a steel legged tower hard by Times square as the flashlights boomed.

As far as the motorist was concerned, Longacre square and its feeder arteries were a happy hunting ground tonight, but the pedestrian had to jump to get the breaks or, if you prefer, to escape the brakes. He ducked under bluecoats and climbed over brass buttons to get across streets that were as bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard. Taxicabs flashed by so swiftly the cops could not peek to see if they were empty, and block long sections of side streets bared asphalt surfaces that never had been bared before.

Great Show for Strollers.
It was a great show for the strollers and they had almost as much fun as on election night. Pedestrian traffic was blocked fifty deep at 44th street and Broadway, the intersection where Mr. Whalen had established his base of operations. While spectators pushed and milled to see what it was all about, motorcycle cops, mounted cops, lieutenants, inspectors and just cops rushed up with reports from their sectors. The only bad kinks developed on the edges of the theatrical zones where traffic piled up much as it previously had been piling up all along the line.

The silliest features of Mr. Whalen's hurry up traffic experiment included: Prohibiting of all parking in the theatrical zone.

Prohibiting of all turns in the area between 42d and 50th street bounded by 6th and 9th avenues.

No taxi cruising until after 2:30 p. m.

Pedestrians Also Regulated.
Pedestrians forbidden to cross streets except on green lights.

Even the theaters were staggered. Musical shows opened at 8:30 o'clock, and dramas at 8:50.

Mail trucks, fire wagons and ambulances were of course permitted to blaze their own way.

With a minimum of motor traffic on streets cleared of all parked cars, the theatrical district presented the appearance of a Sunday afternoon except for the thronged sidewalks.

"Great plan, ain't it?" said one of the special blue coats to the traffic cop who previously ruled 43d street at Broadway.

"Yes," he grinned, "just wait till it rains."

"MRS. SOLOMON'S TOMB" STORY IS PURE FICTION

JEERUSALEM, Jan. 21.—[U.P.]—A story published by the Cairo newspaper Al Mokattam and the London Daily Mail telling of the finding here of the mummy of King Solomon's favorite wife, and of a scroll giving details of her tragic death, turned out today to be pure fiction.

The story appeared as a piece of fiction in a Palestine weekly some weeks ago. It described the sensation which arose when the Jerusalem government received a report that a golden coffin containing the mummy had been found at Mount Ophel, where the ruins of the old city of David had been discovered.

Arab journalists apparently took the action story seriously and Al Mokattam published it yesterday, although it was then some weeks old.

The Spirit of the OPEN DOOR...

THERE are no closed doors within The Foreman National Bank and The Foreman Trust And Savings Bank to separate our officers from our patrons. And this is a policy of far-reaching significance to those who come here on banking business.

Where there is an open door—there is an open mind. A mind capable of applying constructive thought to any problem—small or great. A mind that catches the other fellow's viewpoint—and weighs it as carefully as his own.

Our officers are seated in plain view of all who come here. They are never too busy to see you—and talk with you. They want you—above all else—to feel at ease and at home.

Thus—the open door symbolizes the real spirit of this institution. The warm, genial spirit that has won many thousands of steadfast friends.

And these friends have brought others—to share this unique banking service. So many, in fact, that in the past 20 years our resources have grown from less than 10 millions to over 125 millions without the aid of consolidation.

FILM Dulls Teeth it is a constant danger

You merely think your teeth are dull, "off color." The new dental way amazes—it combats serious tooth and gum disorders, too.

The Film

that turns white teeth
"off color"

DENTAL science knows what robs teeth of brilliant whiteness. It is film. Film clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs stains from food and smoking to turn white teeth "off color" and cloud their brilliance. Film hardens into tartar. Germs by the millions breed in it, and they, plus tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

To remove film, dentists prescribe the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent.

In a few days teeth grow whiter and begin to sparkle. Start today. Get Pepsodent at any drug counter or write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 1104 So. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

BOSWELL BRAINS OF GANG, BIRGER AIDS TESTIFY

Convicts Accuse Official Who Hanged Chief.

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Artie O. Boswell, while state's attorney of Williamson county, was the brains of the Birger gang, Art Newman, former subaltern to the late Charlie Birger, testified today in United States District court here. Boswell, with four others, is on trial for alleged conspiracy to violate the prohibition act.

Two of the defendants pleaded guilty this morning. They were Freddie Wooten, Birger follower, and Samuel Dominick Loni, alleged bootlegger.

Newman, as well as a number of other witnesses, was brought to East St. Louis from the Southern Illinois penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for the murders of Mayor Joe Adams of West City and Mrs. Lory Price. Birger was hanged for the Adams killing and Boswell prosecuted the case for the state.

Boswell, so Newman testified, conspired against the life of Sheriff Oren Coleman; ordered the killing of Price, and advised the killing of Price, besides "selling out" his office to the bootleggers from the day he entered it.

Tells of Election Shooting.

"I was in Shady Rest (Birger's headquarters) the day before the primary election in April, 1926," Newman testified. "Oren Coleman was a candidate for nomination as sheriff. Birger came in and said it would be a bad thing if he won. 'You had better go over to Herrin tomorrow and shoot him out of things,' he told us. So we went."

Newman testified to seeing Boswell at Shady Rest several times. Other witnesses told of the former state's attorney collecting "prohibition money" at other roadhouses.

Newman's testimony was the statement: "We collected for Boswell from bootleggers in different parts of the county. I was present one time when Constable Ritter (indicted in this case, but never apprehended) collected $200 from Peter Salmo. (Salmo is a defendant.)

Paid and Paid and Paid.

"We collected from $12 to $200 at a time. I paid Boswell money for protection a hundred times between Sept. 1, 1924, and Jan. 17, 1927."

When Coleman went into office in 1926 Boswell told Birger, Ritter, and me we might be able to fix things up with him, but we found out that we couldn't. When Boswell learned that he said: 'Well, you had better lay off him for a while and see what I can do with him.' Later Boswell said: 'The best thing to do is get rid of him. Remember, Coleman is a man we can't do much without. We know he has the law down on this Adams murder, I am pretty sure.'

According to Newman, Boswell planned to lure Coleman into Saline county to look for stolen cars and there the gang might make away with him. Newman testified Coleman refused to be trapped.

Seized Liquor Returned.

When militia, sent to the county after the riots, seized some of Birger's liquor, Boswell brought it back to him at Harrisburg. Newman said on the stand. Slot machines picked up by police from protected places were returned by Chief Thomas Boyd of Marion (also a defendant) on an order from Boswell, Newman also said.

During his testimony Newman said Boswell came to Shady Rest with Hobbs Byrn (defendant), then chief of police at Johnston City, to serve warrants on Wooten, Riley Simmons and himself for the murder of Everett Smith and Harry Walker, who were killed in another roadhouse.

"Mr. Boswell said we could make

POLITICAL COUP BY SNOW SEEN IN PARK MOVE

Candidacy of Sunny May Embarrass Deneenites.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
Election of a South Park commissioner by the Circuit court judges when the term of Michael L. Igou expires March 1 took on a new note yesterday. Bernard W. Snow, acting Republican county chairman during the rustication of Homer K. Galpin, came out with a plea for the election of Bernard E. Sunny, former commissioner, who has been classed politically in the Deneen camp.

Politicians interpreted the move as an effort by the Snow-Barrett-Brundage groups to smoke out the Deneenites. Weeks ago reports were afloat that a tentative deal covering the South Park board was a concomitant part of the deal on the sanitary district between the Deneen men and the Democrats which made Howard W. Elmore president. These have been denied by the Deneen group, but the anti-Deneen camps persist in suspicions. By coming out for Mr. Sunny, the politicians deduce, one aim was to put up a candidate whom the Deneen men could not well turn down.

Another Political Deduction.

The expert deducers also made another deduction, to the effect that if the talk of a Deneen-Democrat deal is all to the presence of Mr. Sunny as a candidate would tend to head off T. J. Healy, who has been reported as the Deneen favorite for the Igou place. Mr. Sunny, on the other hand, although considered a Deneen adherent, is not a politician in politics and carries little of the aroma of factionalism.

The Circuit court consists at present of eight Democrats and eleven Republicans. The eleven embrace men from the Deneen, Brundage, Crowe, Thompson camps, quite a mixture.

Explains Sunny's Fitness.

"Mr. Sunny's election," said Mr. Snow yesterday, "would not only put an end to all talk of bipartisan deals but it would insure the complete confidence of the voters in the honesty and capacity of the board management, so that the funds for the proper preparation of the World's Fair in 1933 would be unhesitatingly voted."

The Snow statement also says that Mr. Sunny was left off the board a year ago through "political exigencies." To add a little descriptive matter, Mr. Sunny was pushed out by a combination of six Democratic judges and six Republican judges embracing Thompson and Crowe men.

READY TO START PROSECUTION FOR SMOKE NUISANCE

Last Warning Given to Violators.

Violators of the smoke ordinance were given their last warning yesterday as Frank A. Chambers, head of the smoke abatement bureau, was ordered to begin immediately to prosecute those responsible for smoke barges. The order followed his conference with Health Commissioner Arnold H. Kegel and the board of advisory engineers appointed Saturday.

"There is no need to educate firemen and engineers in the smokeless operation of furnaces," Howard W. Evans, representing the Western Society of Engineers, said. "They have had all the education needed during the last few years. Putting the fear of the law into the violators by prosecution will do more to rid Chicago of the smoke evil than anything else."

Blames Traveling Janitors.

Schools and janitors who attend to more than one furnace were blamed by Mr. Evans for a large portion of the smoke which clouds the atmosphere. The traveling janitors, he said, load up one fire and then go on to the next one. The result is that each one sends up clouds of smoke which could be eliminated through the proper supervision.

With the passage of the tax levy ordinance by the city council yesterday, which provides funds for the operation of the smoke bureau, Mr. Chambers was authorized to appoint a personnel of ten smoke observers and ten engineers. His program for the use of observation towers and conferences with groups representing various factory owners received the approval of the advisory board.

Law in Effect, Kegel Says.

"The smoke abatement ordinance is in full effect," Dr. Kegel announced after the meeting, "and it will mean a cleaner and healthier Chicago. The board is sincere in its efforts to go through with the program for smoke abatement. Violators should beware."

HOOVER CROSSES FIELDS OF SOUTH THAT HELPED HIM

Speeds Toward Florida to Think and Fish.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Payetteville, N. C., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—President elect Herbert Hoover is finding rest again and another change of scene.

With his political troubles packed away temporarily, he is on his way to Summer sea and coral reefs in Florida. His fishing rods were packed and probably by Thursday, he will be at the sport which keeps the temper good and makes a philosopher out of a man.

One of Mr. Hoover's most important visitors in Miami, where he will arrive tomorrow afternoon, is likely to be Dwight Morrow, ambassador to Mexico, who now is in Nassau. Morrow is coming home by way of Key West and is expected to be invited to stop in Miami.

May Be Secretary of State.
Mr. Hoover has at least the Latin American trip to talk about with him, even if he does not ask him to leave his post in Mexico and take the state portfolio.

Mr. Morrow's name has been most persistently discussed in connection with this appointment, but it is understood now he would like to finish his job in Mexico City.

Mr. Hoover today rode through scenes of political victory in the southland. Virginia and North Carolina fields stretched away from his train window. The fields were brown with cotton stubble. The air became warmer, he was coming into spring.

Since he became President elect he has traveled around all the seasons of the continent from bleak winter plains to tropical belts; from the sea coast to the home of the snows and back again.

On His Last Vacation.

From the fireside of his Washington home, where he has put in long days of labor for two weeks, he now is on his last vacation before the White House takes him into its stern routine. Two weeks ago, he was in the Gulf stream. Tomorrow, he will be close to its long blue rollers again. There is a lonely coral key near Miami where Mr. Hoover longs to try his new rods against the savage fish that lurk in these rocks. And he will be away from all cabinet spectators and political advisers.

Outside his appearance tomorrow as the center of a big celebration in Florida, Mr. Hoover has made no immediate appointments.

The opinion grows that he will not have his final cabinet list ready until just before his inauguration and it also is surmised now that he will not return to Washington until a day or so before he takes the oath of office.

"We know our Luckies That's how we stay slender"

EVERY woman who fears overweight finds keen interest in new-day and common-sense ways to keep a slender, fashionable figure. Overweight must be avoided. "Better to light a Lucky whenever you crave fattening sweets."

Toasting does it. Toasting develops and improves the flavor of the world's finest tobaccos. Lucky Strike satisfies the longing for things that make you fat, without interfering with a normal appetite for healthful foods. That's why Luckies are good to smoke. Toasting makes Lucky Strike the healthy cigarette for you to smoke.

Many men who carefully watch their health discovered this years ago. They know that Luckies steady their nerves and do not slow up their physical vigor—prominent athletes have gone on record that this is so. They know that 20,679 physicians have stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful and that too many such are eaten by the American people. So, for moderation's sake we say:—

"REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD OF A SWEET."

BLENDED

IN the tropics of many lands hundreds of different kinds and grades of coffee beans are grown—as different from one another as are the people who inhabit different lands and climes.

Large smooth beans mild in flavor—scrubby little beans sharp with acid—medium-sized beans, rich and pungent—each has its special excellence, yet no one alone is quite satisfying to the cultivated palate.

So thought a coffee expert down in Dixie years ago. Bred in the South's tradition of good living, he had a talent for flavor. He knew all the choicest kinds of coffee and they all seemed to him tantalizingly just not quite perfect.

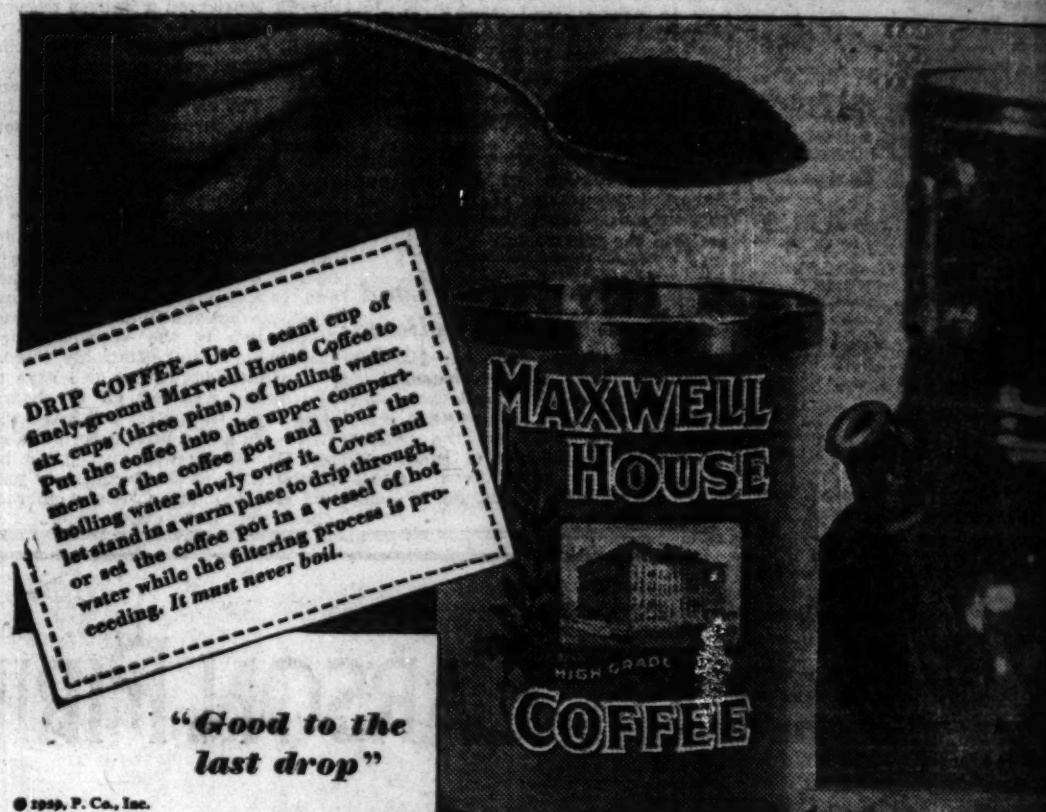

So he had the happy inspiration to create a new coffee flavor. Months and months he worked, selecting, rejecting, combining, re-combining, the finest types of coffee, until at last he achieved a blend of such rich and subtle harmony that it delighted even his critical taste.

Distinguished guests at the celebrated old Maxwell House in Nashville, where this coffee was first introduced pronounced it the finest they had ever tasted. "Good to the last drop," one of them called it, draining his cup with keen relish. They wanted it to serve in their own homes; they spread its fame abroad, until Maxwell House Coffee has become the best known and the most popular coffee in the whole United States.

"The Old Colonel," as he is known to his friends, has reason to be proud of the achievement of his youth. Today, from coast to coast, Maxwell House is the fine coffee preferred by America's leading hostesses, served daily in millions of America's foremost homes. It is pleasing more critical coffee drinkers than any other coffee ever offered for sale.

You will want your own family to enjoy every day this particularly rich and mellow coffee. You will want it to serve to your guests. Your grocer has Maxwell House Coffee in the blue-wrapped tin sealed to preserve all its fine fragrance and flavor.

DRIP COFFEE—Use a scant cup of freshly-ground Maxwell House Coffee to six cups (three pints) of boiling water. Put the coffee into the upper compartment of the coffee pot and pour the most of the coffee pot into the lower, holding water slowly over it. Cover and let stand in a warm place to drip through, or set the coffee pot in a vessel of hot water while the filtering process is proceeding. It must never boil.

ALDERMEN PASS BILL BOOSTING TAX $8,000,000

Schools Get $7,650,000
More than in 1928.

Passage of the annual tax levy ordinance yesterday by the city council marked an increase of eight million dollars in the estimated expenditures by the city and the board of education for 1929 over those of 1928, which will be charged to the tax payers living in Chicago. The ordinance was passed without a dissenting vote, thirty-one aldermen voting for it.

The ordinance apportions to the city and the school board $177,021,250 from the taxes collected in Chicago. This represents an increase of $8,283,145 over the 1928 ordinance, which called for $168,738,105. The greater portion of the increase, $7,650,000, it was pointed out, is credited to the mounting cost of the public schools.

Schools Get $7,650,000.
Last year, the school board received $98,600,000 from the taxes, while the expenses for 1929, which were $106,250,000. The increasing number of school children, necessitating new buildings and more teachers, makes it necessary for the schools to have more money, it was said.

A mandamus issued by Circuit Judge Michael Feinberg, directing the payment of $42,191 to Irving Flamm and his wife, Ann, was referred by the council to its finance committee. Notice of the mandamus had been served earlier on Mayor Thompson, the aldermen, and other city officials.

The sum represents the amount of a judgment given them against the city for their property which was condemned for the widening of North Ashland avenue. The court's order directs that, in case there is not sufficient money in the bond issue for the payment of the claim, the council should include the claim in the annual appropriation bill.

Only $238,392 in Bond Fund.

Examination of the bond fund budget showed that there remains only $238,392. For 1929, Michael J. Feinberg, president of the board of local improvements, has requested $4,500,000 for the payment of property and buildings condemned along Ashland avenue.

Dr. C. C. Little, President of U. of Michigan, Resigns

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 21.—[Special.]—Motivated by principle he would uphold, "he they right or wrong," Dr. Clarence Cook Little tonight offered his resignation as president of the University of Michigan to the board of regents, which met in executive session, and it was unanimously accepted.

Dr. Little's letter, giving his reasons for resigning, was in the hands of every regent prior to the special meeting, facilities having been mailed Saturday by the president.

The dean of administration, Dr. Alexander D. Ruthven, was authorized to take charge of the university's legislative program. This was at the request of Dr. Little.

"For some time two things have been increasingly apparent," Dr. Little's letter said. "First, that my methods of handling situations dealing with interests of private donors, political interest, 'local' interests, and alumni interest are not consistent with policies which the board of regents deems wise."

"Second, that I shall, I hope, be more effective in scientific research and teaching than in administration. I therefore, request that my resignation be accepted, to take effect Sept. 1, 1929, and that I be given a leave of absence from June 20, 1929, to Aug. 31, 1929, or before that, if the regents desire it."

"I further ask two things: 'First, that the university college be established, only if the board of regents is wholeheartedly in favor of the principles and if it is approved by the donors, or if any successor is definitely in favor of it and will personally sponsor it.'

"Only in these ways can it have a fair chance of success. It would seem needlessly hard on the students to launch it under circumstances likely to doom it to failure."

"Second, that the present legislative program be placed in charge of the dean of administration acting for the present and of a committee of the regents."

"I hope that the regents will agree with me, in the absence of personal feeling, and will realize that I wish to acknowledge their great kindness to me personally at all times."

"The chief assets possessed by any executive are the ingrained principles which activate his policies. These, right or wrong, necessitate the above course of action in spite of great personal regret on my part that such is the case."

SUICIDE PACT OF TWO SULLIVAN BANKERS HINTED

Sullivan, Ind., Jan. 21.—[Special.]—Dashed in efforts to prove that the death of Edgar D. Maple, vice president of the Peoples bank here, was a murder, authorities working on the neighborhood's twin bank scandal tonight considered possibility of a suicide pact between Maple and Jessup F. Bolinger, president of the First State bank of Shelby.

Maple and Bolinger were close friends. Shortly after Maple's death became known Wednesday Bolinger was found by relatives unconscious in his garage, two doors locked and his automobile engine running. When revived he confessed to attempting suicide, and admitted he had given Maple $25,000 in forged notes.

James E. Bedwell, Sullivan county prosecutor and the man through whom prosecution action must come if undertaken by county officials, says Maple committed suicide.

Bolinger, when he came out of his stupor, was assuming the name of Edgar Maple. Bolinger's wife is an charge of the defunct Shelby bank. The state bank examiner says he will insist on some action by the Sullivan county prosecutor. One theory is that Maple, facing the responsibility for accepting Bolinger's forged notes, ended his life rather than face Benjamin Davis, president of the bank, and Maple's father-in-law.

LET'S BE FRIENDS WITH U. S., JAPAN PREMIER PLEADS

TOKIO, Jan. 22.—(AP)—American studies of Japanese immigrants was held up before the Japanese diet to-day by Premier and Foreign Minister Baron Tanaka as a problem still requiring settlement between the two governments, but one which should not interfere with the friendly relations between the United States and Japan.

"It is a source for congratulation," the foreign minister said, "that the bond of friendship, economic and political, with the United States is becoming more than ever strengthened. Only I wish to add that the matter of the immigration law which has been pending for the last few years has not yet been composed."

"A satisfactory solution of a problem like this must, after all, depend upon mutual good understanding which, I am fully confident, is growing year after year."

Baron Tanaka expressed gratification at the progress of pacification in China after so many years of strife and proclaimed Japan's willingness to cooperate with "other nations having close relations with China, to lend them assistance as far as possible in their task of reconstruction."

China, however, he said, "should more than ever be guided by the counsel of self-restraint and moderation" to achieve her unification.

Realty Dealer Ends Life in Office by Hanging

The body of George J. Ogden, 50 years old, a real estate dealer at 18 South Western avenue for the last twenty years, was found hanging from a clothes hook in his office yesterday afternoon by his stenographer, Miss May Smith, 5330 Washington boulevard. James Lee, owner of a tire shop next door to Ogden's office, said he had been dependent over falling health. Ogden leaves his widow and a 15 year old daughter, living at 48 North Mayfield avenue.

Whitney Offers $750,000 to House Bird Life Collection

New York, Jan. 21.—(Special).—Harry Payne Whitney, banker, sportsman, and ornithologist, has offered $750,000 to the American Museum of Natural History for the construction of a new wing to house collections of bird life, provided the city contributes an equal amount. The offer was made to the museum authorities on Jan. 10. Today the board of estimate referred the proposal to the special calendar dealing with corporate stock matters. Early consideration was promised.

Eric Pedley, Polo Player, Injures Eye in Squash Game

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 21.—(Special).—Eric Pedley of American International polo team fame, suffered an accident while playing squash today which may cost him sight of his right eye. Pedley was playing with Hal Roach, the film magnate, and George Pope, San Francisco millionaire, when the ball rebounded into his eye. The iris was seriously hurt. The injury occurred at Midwick Country club.

Woman with $425 Hidden in Clothes Dies Suddenly

An unidentified woman about 60 years old collapsed on the sidewalk in front of 800 North Ashland avenue last night and died on the way to the county hospital. A search of the woman's clothing by West Chicago avenue police revealed $425 hidden in her waist. A gold wedding ring bore no initials, nor were there any markings in her clothes by which she could be identified.

Snowstorm in Southern California Halts Courts

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 21.—(Special).—The court calendar in Los Angeles Superior court was discontinued today because of the freak snowstorm which swept southern California yesterday. Superior Judges Fleming, Burdell, and Bishop failed to appear and telephoned they had been snowbound at near-by week-end stopping places.

Marines Leave for Shanghai

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commander in chief of the Asiatic fleet, advised the navy department today that the third brigade of marines left Shanghai, China, for Shanghai yesterday aboard the transport Henderson.

On Chilly Evenings...

do your bridge guests bid goodbye early?

Give your heating system a chance...

with Hoffman No. 2 Vacuum Valves

At eight o'clock, warm rooms. At half past nine a chill creeps through the living room. Guests usually misunderstand the reason.

One doesn't try to save fuel at the expense of comfort. But any steam heating radiator loses its heat shortly after the fire is banked, unless drafts are kept wide open, and fuel recklessly burned.

Unless—but let a heating contractor near you tell you why. There is a simple way to keep steam radiators hot for hours after the fire is banked. It is easy for any good heating man to vacuumize your system.

When this is done you can have hot radiators 15 minutes after the fire is brightened, keep them hot three hours after steam pressure fades to nothing. No need then to interrupt the bridge game.

Those little but important radiator valves that vent the air, there lies the key to your entire heating system. Let your heating contractor replace them with Hoffman No. 2 Vacuum Valves. The first time you raise steam after this job is competently done, air that filled the pipes and radiators quickly rushes out through the automatic vents of the Hoffman Valves. These astonishing valves then doubly lock out the air—prevent it from returning when steam pressure recedes.

Because air cannot return to destroy the steam, radiators remain hot, filled with vacuum steam, for hours, even though the fire is banked. Next time you get up steam it quickly fills every radiator, because it does not have to fight its way and dissipate its heat against its mortal enemy, air. Thus, less fuel delivers heat to rooms for many hours longer. This applies equally to all one-pipe steam systems, whether you burn coal, oil or gas.

Ask your heating contractor to inspect your heating system. Ask him for an estimate on a Hoffman

No. 2 Valve job. You will find it ridiculously low for the amount of comfort gained and fuel saved. The dividends thus earned soon repay the small cost.

Many intelligent men and women like to know the reasons and principles behind important mechanical inventions. We have published an interesting booklet, "How to Lock Out Air—the Heat Thief." In it you will find the whole story of Hoffman No. 2 Vacuum Valves. This book is yours for the asking. Hoffman Specialty Co., Inc., 130 N. Wells St., Chicago, or Phone Central 4987-4988.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF STRAIGHT RATING as announced by GENERAL MOTORS TRUCKS

How does the Truck-BUYER Profit?

THE purpose and effect of STRAIGHT RATING are to bring closer and more effective co-operation between truck-maker and truck-buyer.

First of all it removes vagueness and the risks of guesswork.

For any GENERAL MOTORS TRUCK, maximum allowable total gross weight is given and guaranteed. Exact weight of chassis is given, and of any type of body.

These, subtracted from the maximum allowable total gross weight, plainly and clearly give full pay-load capacity—the full capacity which will be most efficiently, therefore most economically, handled by any model, equipped with any particular type body.

You don't take a chance on overloading—on nullifying your guarantee, running up maintenance costs or shortening the truck's life. You don't buy and operate more capacity than you need.

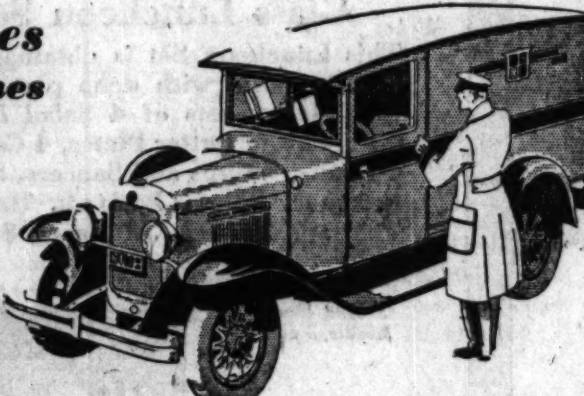

With this clear advance knowledge, tire equipment is exactly right to give utmost mileage.

Every GENERAL MOTORS TRUCK is now sold and guaranteed on its STRAIGHT RATING.

Every GENERAL MOTORS TRUCK is sold on the basis of "extra value" built in—instead of "excess allowances" on trade-ins.

No matter what your haulage job may be there is a GENERAL MOTORS TRUCK accurately suited to your particular needs.

These are definite advantages when a man comes to consider and invest in new equipment. Use them. See, and investigate what General Motors has before you buy.

See this great LIGHT DUTY series powered by 1929 PONTIAC engines

VOTE TO SUSPEND GOV. JOHNSTON IN OKLAHOMA

State Senate Organizes Impeachment Court.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Sweeping aside comparatively feeble opposition, the Oklahoma senate today suspended from office Gov. Henry S. Johnston in less than a half hour after it had received five articles of impeachment voted last week by the house of representatives.

In a swift succession of events W. J. Holloway, lieutenant governor, notified Johnston that he was assuming the duties of the gubernatorial office during the period of suspension; the senate received itself into a court of impeachment organized for the trial of the governor; and the house investigating committee, which had returned the charges, resumed its inquiry into the affairs of state departments.

The senate met Jan. 23 as the day for Johnston's appearance before the court.

Avoids Dual Government.

It was Mr. Johnston's contention that the senate should not have received the impeachment charges until after it had resolved itself into a court, but he would make no attempt to retain his office, however, as it would create a situation of dual government which he wished to avoid.

Acting Gov. Holloway in the letter notifying Gov. Johnston of his assumption of the office, extended to him the privileges and use of the executive offices during the period of suspension.

Although Gov. Johnston is a Democrat, opposition to his suspension was led in the senate by a Republican, W. T. Clark of Medford.

Impeachment Court Organized.

The senate court of impeachment was organized, with Chief Justice C. W. Mason of the state supreme court presiding officer of the impeachment court, administering the oath of office to members.

The role of acting governor is not new to Holloway. As president pro tempore of the senate, he acted as lieutenant-governor under M. E. Trapp, Johnston's predecessor.

Catholic Parochial Schools Show Growing Attendance.

Attendance in the Catholic schools of Chicago has increased 12,000 during the last year, according to the annual report of the schools made public yesterday by the superintendents, Dr. John J. Kozlowski, and the Rev. Daniel F. Cunningham. The parochial and high schools in the diocese show a total attendance of nearly 200,000. A total of 344 elementary schools and 52 high schools are listed.

MEXICANS UNEASY AS AGRARIAN BOOM FOR PRESIDENCY STARTS

BY JOHN CORNYN.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 21.—The non-military front of the presidential election campaign was changed suddenly today when Gen. Roberto Cruz, former prefect of metropolitan police and former commander of military zones in various parts of Mexico, applied to the war department for an indefinite separation from the army to give time to political propaganda in favor of Don Gilberto Valenzuela, former minister to London. Gen. Cruz has great influence with the agrarian element and is aggressive.

It was reported today that Gen. Cruz will aid Aurelio Manrique and other leaders recently expelled from the Agrarian party to create a new agrarian organization with ramifications in all interior towns and cities in Mexico.

The election for state governor of Hidalgo on Sunday gives an indication of the political conditions likely to arise if the presidential candidates go through Mexico stirring up the peasants.

On Sunday the animosities engendered resulted in more than a score of deaths and many wounded. The commander of the municipal police of El Chico, near Pachuca, revolted and attacked the mayor and city council, killing the former and wounding others. Federal forces intervened and restored peace.

The mayor of Acapulco was killed and several citizens wounded in a battle between police and politicians who attempted to prevent voting for the opposing candidate. In a pitched battle in Pachuca, the state capital, voting was practically broken up, polling booths were wrecked and ballots stolen.

From Amantlan, Tlaxcala and Acapulco, important towns, come reports of similar battles between police and politicians or between the two contending political parties.

REVEALS HOW TELEPHONE COST KING HIS THRONE

Rebel Chief Hears Order for His Own Death.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BERLIN, Jan. 21.—A dramatic tale of the undoing of the Afghan king, Amanullah Khan, through the telephone which he himself introduced in his lands, was told by Frau Hetzel, wife of a German engineer, who just has returned from Kabul.

"We all knew of the water carrier's son, the rebel bandit Bacha Sakao," she said. "The servants, who are simple people, delighted in telling tales of his generosity to the poor, and my husband and myself, when we met him alone in the mountains, were received most graciously by the rebel bandit."

"We were on an excursion eight hours from Kabul when a tall, bearded Afghan in officer's uniform stopped us. I was terrified. He asked 'who' we were. We told him my husband ran the match factory in Kabul and were friends of Afghanistan from Germany. He immediately invited us to visit him and played the part of host exceedingly."

"Then, in the middle of December, we foreigners heard that Bacha Sakao had asked King Amanullah to pardon his robberies and offered his services and the support of his mountain tribes in gratitude to the king. The king accepted and ordered Bacha Sakao to report to Gov. Hakkim near Kabul."

"The latter was out when the water carrier's son called. Bacha Sakao seized the opportunity to try out the sincerity of the king. He used the telephone and pretended to be one of Gov. Hakkim's aids, asking Amanullah what to do with Bacha Sakao. 'Kill him,' was the order he received. 'But that is against the Koran,' replied the rebel chieftain. 'Then throw pepper in his eyes until he is blind,' spoke the king. 'I shall come to Kabul tomorrow and throw pepper in your eyes myself. I am Bacha Sakao,' the rebel shouted to the king."

Women Under Fire.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, Jan. 21.—In a letter to her sister in Sussex, Violet Purford, one of the party of English women who escaped from the besieged capital of Afghanistan in an airplane with the party of Lady Humphreys, wife of the British minister, gives an account of the ordeal through which the women passed in Kabul, she said. "The rebels took their stand on one side of the legation and the king's troops on the other. Machine guns and cannon were mounted behind the walls. The firing was wild and rapid. Fifty shells fell within the grounds. Many British men were slightly wounded and their houses blown up. "Stray bullets burst through the windows of the legation. With a double barricade made of sofas and upholstered furniture, for eight days and nights we did not dare to move, sleeping behind the barricades in our clothing."

No Wear,
No Trouble

An automatic refrigerator without moving parts... that freezes by heat. It sounds impossible. We were astonished when we investigated Electrolux. We could hardly believe what we heard. But there were the cold, scientific facts. There was the product itself... working perfectly. There were the thousands of satisfied users all over the world... in private homes and in the finest new modern apartment dwellings. There were the hundreds of big public utility companies, in this country, selling Electrolux after the most careful investigation on the part of their engineers.

Seven years of practical test

And so we were convinced, as you will be when you see this marvel of science. Invented in the laboratories of The Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden, in 1922, the revolutionary freezing principle of Electrolux has had seven years of thorough practical test. And in all that time no one has found any good

THE SULGRAVE CHAIR

HOWEVER beautifully a living room may be furnished, the most casual eye pauses to admire a truly fine wing chair.

Its decorative possibilities are a joy to the person of taste. The high back and full, graceful lines give contrast to the even level of tables, couches and low-backed chairs, and in summer time a slip of hand-blocked linen or copper print chintz contributes a cheerful brightness.

Daners upholstered furniture is made in our own New England shops. We take particular pride in seeing to it that the frames are of second growth ash, carefully joined; that springs are tied by hand; eight to ten times; and that all materials, though hidden from sight, are the best obtainable for the purpose required.

Visit our showrooms soon, and see our collection of traditional individual pieces and related groups—for every room in the home. Daners prices offer values unequalled in hand made furniture.

to the Welcome Canners Association

And a Message to the Housewives of Chicago

This week representatives of Cannerymen and Packers all over the United States are holding their annual meeting in this great city of Chicago. These men meet to discuss, among other matters, ways and means to produce and pack still better canned foods than ever before. Uniform standards of quality are recognized by these associated cannerymen that give you better food value.

Into sealed containers for convenient use in the home go many of the finest foods that nature's bounty provides. From soil and sea—from tree—stalk and vine—these foods of fine flavor, foods that are wholesome, nutritious and economical, are thus made available to millions of families.

And at A&P stores everywhere you will find your favorite brands of these foods that were harvested and packed at the peak of their goodness. In midwinter you can partake of the very finest foods that summer has provided.

WIFE ADMITTED SHOOTING WILSON 4 WITNESSES SAY

State Scores in Trial of Big Game Huntress.

New York, Jan. 21. (Special.)—Four more witnesses, including two girls, testified today at the trial of Mrs. Esther Evans DeForest Wilson for the shooting of her husband, Dr. H. H. Wilson, lawyer and former vice-chairman of the Republican national committee. All said Mrs. Wilson, society woman and big game huntress, admitted she had done the shooting. Mr. Wilson was shot in the left shoulder and in the back in his office on the afternoon of last March 23.

Traffic Patrolman Scalfani told the jury that he was on duty outside the building when he was informed that there had been a shooting on the fourth floor of the Heckscher building. He found Wilson seated in a chair.

Says Mrs. Wilson in Office. "I asked Mr. Wilson who had shot him," Scalfani told the jury. "He told me and I saw him." The witness was prevented by Judge Nott from finishing the answer on the motion of Mrs. Wilson's lawyer.

"I walked into another room, and saw Mrs. Wilson there," continued Scalfani. "A revolver was lying on a desk near her. I took the revolver, and asked Mrs. Wilson: 'Is this yours?' And she said it was. I took her back to Mr. Wilson, and asked him: 'Is this the woman that shot you?' And he said: 'Yes; that's my wife. Then I asked her if she did the shooting and she said: 'Yes'."

Says She Admitted Shooting.

Miss Mary Ann Jahner, the telephone operator in the Wilson office, corroborated the testimony of the stenographer. She said she had heard Mrs. Wilson admit that she had shot her husband. Under cross-examination Miss Jahner said she didn't think Mrs. Wilson was excited after the shooting, but then told the jury that immediately after the shooting Mrs. Wilson threw her arms about her neck and exclaimed: "I'm sure I killed Mr. Wilson. Shall I kill myself?"

Detective Sweeney of the West 47th street station testified he questioned Mr. Wilson in the presence of the defendant and quoted the wounded man as saying: "She shot me," referring to his wife. Mrs. Wilson admitted that she had fired the shot, Sweeney testified.

Judge Nott adjourned the trial until Wednesday at the request of defense counsel.

ENGINEER NAMED TO BUILD BRIDGE FOR OUTER DRIVE

Hugh Young, engineer of the Chicago Plan commission, yesterday was appointed by the Lincoln park commissioners to direct the construction of the outer drive link bridge across the mouth of the Chicago river. Work on the bridge, which will link the outer drives of the Lincoln and South Parks, awaits a government permit from the war department, which is expected shortly. The commissioners at their meeting yesterday authorized that a bond issue of $2,000,000 for park extension be placed on the ballot at the referendum election on Feb. 24.

U. S. Drops Conspiracy Cases Against New York Night Clubs

BY TOM PETREY.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

New York, Jan. 21. (Special.)—The federal drive to wipe the night clubs off Broadway with a mop collapsed today when Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt's young special prosecutor, Norman J. Morrison, admitted the government had been licked.

A bit sorrowfully Mr. Morrison, appearing before Federal Judge Edwin Thomas, visiting jurist from Connecticut, confessed it was virtually impossible in New York to convict for conspiracy to violate the prohibition law. The juries cannot be convinced that Manhattan's bad boys and girls should be sent away to Atlanta for providing sucker playgrounds.

Drops Charges Against 30. Consequently, the government today dropped its conspiracy charges against thirty night club proprietors and managers whose places were raided in a spectacular manner last summer along about the time Al Smith was being fitted with the mantle of the Democratic party's standard bearer.

It now appears that the government does not consider such little girls Helen Morgan and Tex Guinan as conspirators, but only as "nuisances" and the same stern government, in the person of the sprightly Mrs. Willebrandt, is not too confident that it can prove they are "nuisances."

Mrs. Willebrandt, who as assistant attorney general has charge of prohibition enforcement—mops and all—sent Mr. Morrison and a squad of men and women prohibition agents over from Washington during the last presidential campaign. Their orders were to dim the bright lights. They spent a lot of money and arrested a lot of people.

Call Off Special Train.

Today, Mrs. Willebrandt sent Mr. Morrison back to tell them his lady boss said it was all off—that is, almost all off. The thirty thirst quencher ers still have to stand trial on the nuisance count, but that special train to Atlanta will not have to be ordered this year.

Thirty indictments were to have been called today and the old federal building began to fill with defendants and spectators around ten o'clock. Mr. Morrison let it be known he had a message to deliver. He arose and spoke sadly:

"There is no prospect of securing convictions of conspiracy in this district under such conditions as the indictments set forth. The government, accordingly, will ask for convictions under conspiracy counts when the remaining cases are called for trial, and it is our request that the call of the calendar be put over until we may confer with counsel for the defendants."

Agree It Is Lovely Idea.

Every one agreed this was a lovely idea and the trial was put over until Wednesday morning. Mr. Morrison and attorneys for the defendants immediately began a pow-wow and it was not many hours before rumors began filtering, or whatever it is rumors do, through the corridors.

This called for a statement from United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle, and he immediately rose to the occasion by issuing one. It read: "Mr. Morrison has informed me that the impression conveyed by newspaper accounts of the so-called night club cases is that the government would accept pleas of guilty with the understanding that only fines would be imposed. This is wholly unwarranted by any statement from Mr. Morrison in connection with his announcement to the court today."

"The government will move the trial of all these cases at once and will make no bargain whatever. In case of conviction, the government will recommend a jail sentence wherever direct responsibility for maintaining a nuisance appears."

Call Off Special Train.

Today, Mrs. Willebrandt sent Mr. Morrison back to tell them his lady boss said it was all off—that is, almost all off. The thirty thirst quencher

Ernest V. Lippe Elected President of Engineers

Ernest V. Lippe was elected president of the Chicago Association of Consulting Engineers to succeed Irving E. Brooke, at the organization's ninth annual meeting last night at the City Club. Rollo E. Gilmore was elected vice president, and H. L. Clute, secretary.

GEN. BOOTH GAINS STRENGTH FOR HIS BATTLE IN COURT

Hearing Is Delayed Until Next Friday.

LONDON, Jan. 21. (AP)—Gen. Bramwell Booth has gained physical strength in the last ten days, which will aid him in the prosecution of the fight which he seems determined to continue for retention of control of the Salvation Army. The international headquarters of the army tonight issued a bulletin signed by two physicians and stating the general has steadily improved in health.

All possibility of electing a new general this week disappeared today when the Chancery court granted an adjournment until Friday to permit the defendants to prepare their case. While the injunction was directed against the high council, only Chief of Staff Higgins and the seven commissioners who signed the call for the council meeting were served as individual defendants.

Booth to Push Suit.

There has been no sign that Bramwell Booth has any intention of withdrawing the suit.

The medical bulletin was issued over the signatures of Drs. John Weir and Ernest Wardlaw Milne, who signed a similar bulletin issued about ten days ago and in which they said that the general would be ready to resume his work within a few months.

Today's announcement said: "We have examined Gen. Booth today. The result of our examination has justified our previous report. His progress has been more than maintained and this, in existing circumstances, must be considered encouraging."

Appeal to Mrs. Booth.

An appeal was made today to Mrs. Bramwell Booth to halt the court proceedings by which her husband hopes to retain command of the Salvation Army despite the high council's decision to oust him.

Lieut. Cowham of the Southampton area, one of the oldest and most esteemed divisional officers, sent a telegram urging the Booth family to desist from legal proceedings.

CAPTIVE ADMITS PART IN $39,000 GEM ROBBERY

Charles Durfee, 31 years old, 6235 Kestner avenue, arrested Saturday after he had robbed the home of Samuel Maremont, 5297 Drexel boulevard, of fur coats, rugs, and clothing valued at $2,000, confessed to Lieut. Charles Gratton of the Hyde Park station last night to participating in the $39,000 jewelry robbery at the Wilmette home of Mrs. Israel Warshawsky and the $5,000 holdup of the Savoy ballroom, colored dance hall at 47th street and South Park way, last year. Mrs. Warshawsky is a daughter of Morris Miller, political boss of the 19th ward.

Durfee, who declared that his real name was George Rego, said his companions in the robberies were Edward Piech, Joseph Young, and a third man whose name he does not know. They are being sought.

Less risk of "flu" if you do two things

Precautions you can take immediately

Takes no chances

THERE is no use worrying every time you draw a breath for fear you will breathe in some influenza germs. Do the following two things and forget it: First, keep your nose and throat well protected, and second, keep your system in good condition. The chances are you will avoid contagion.

"As a first precaution, I am prescribing Mistol to all my patients, as it protects the nose and throat against the germs of influenza. Use it every morning, the first thing, before you go out. Again when you come home at night. Don't be afraid to use it freely; it will do no harm."

"Just tilt your head back and apply Mistol with the special dropper which comes with every package, until you feel it trickling down your throat. It will clear your head wonderfully, relieve any inflammation; it will help dry up a running nose. It has a soothing effect on the throat, too. Gargle it for a sore throat or a little irritating cough. Above all, it protects the nose and throat against the germs of influenza."

"This is the first precaution; now for the second: Physicians agree that, particularly in times of epidemic, weakening of the system due to purging by laxatives and cathartics is not advisable; therefore, many doctors are prescribing Nujol. It is not a laxative or cathartic but a pure, natural substance that helps your system function at all times the way nature intended it to. Like pure water, it is harmless. In no case does Nujol cause weakening of the system. Take it night and morning; it will keep you in first class condition. You will have a far better chance to resist 'flu' or any other diseases that are going the rounds."

"The combination treatment of Nujol and Mistol is a double safeguard against colds and influenza. Start this wise twofold precaution now. Don't delay. Put worry out of your mind. The chances are good that you will escape influenza and colds. Nujol and Mistol are on sale at all druggists."

A danger sign since childhood!

Remember the unpleasant results of a coated tongue in your childhood days? How promptly mother could produce the hated castor oil!

A COATED tongue is still a danger signal... the sign of a disordered digestive tract... of food fermentation that results in acid poisoning. It's so hard to avoid its causes that nearly everyone suffers from acid poisoning at times. Such everyday habits as hurried eating, over-eating, too much smoking, can clog your digestive system with the excessive acidity that may lead to more serious trouble.

Acid poisoning flees from Milnesia (Milk of Magnesia) Wafers

Chew a couple of pleasant tasting Milnesia Wafers when acid poison's danger signs appear. Sick headache... sour stomach... indigestion... bad breath... these are indications that your system is calling for the alkalinity that counteracts excessive acid.

Milnesia gives you this needed alkalinity in the equal teaspoons of milk of magnesia represented in each palatable wafer. Hundreds of doctors are endorsing this new way of taking milk of magnesia. For when you chew Milnesia, your whole digestive system gets a gentle cleansing... from gums and mouth to intestines. Teeth and gums, where acid poisoning lurks, share in its benefits... so use it daily and keep yourself mentally and physically efficient.

Milnesia appeals to children

Children today are luckier than we were. Tasty Milnesia Wafers in place of unpleasant liquid for delicate little digestive tracts! ## Electricity makes elevator transportation modern Electricity has made vertical transportation as modern as transportation by subway, motor car or express train. It was first applied as power for lifting the cars, then to control the operation. Electrical refinements have given elevators new swiftness and new uniformity of speed. Elevators with electrical control travel smoothly and rapidly whether heavily or lightly loaded, and come to a smooth stop at the floor level, automatically.

It is natural that Westinghouse engineers, who have always been leaders in electrical developments, should have contributed much to these refinements in elevator transportation.

When Food Sours

Sweeten the stomach—instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25¢ and 50¢ a bottle—any drug store.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

How to Have Soft, Pretty White Hands

Many women will undoubtedly be glad to know how they may have beautiful, white, soft, pretty hands regardless of the work they have to do. The secret lies in rubbing a little Iodo-Mint into the hands occasionally, preferably just before retiring at night. In the morning you will be agreeably surprised at the pleasant transformation that has been wrought by even a single application. Iodo-Mint is made from a Japanese product that is simply marvelous for its scintillating properties whether used on the hands or face. Regardless of what kind of work a woman does she should have pretty hands, as they are really the true marks of refinement. A few applications of Iodo-Mint will actually make any woman proud of her hands and skin. It costs little and is sold and recommended by good druggists everywhere.

MAY ERECT BANK BUILDING AT STONY AND 87TH

Bain Interests Buy the Southwest Corner.

BY AL CHASE.

Sale of the southwest corner of Stony Island avenue and East 87th street, 124x124, yesterday disclosed plans under way for the erection of a business block which will contain a new state bank. The latter will be controlled by the John Bain interests. Details of the building project and the contemplated new bank were not available yesterday.

Title to the site was transferred by Julia C. and Irving Lucas and Sally and Maurice Kornhak to John Kohlmann. The corner is vacant. The price paid is understood to have been in the neighborhood of $157,000, according to the office of John R. O'Connor, broker in the transaction.

To Build at Austin and Guntion. The Crawford Building corporation has sold the business building at 4348 North Crawford avenue to Christ and Peter Doris for an undisclosed consideration. The vacant southeast corner of North Austin avenue and Guntion street was taken in part payment and will be improved with a store and office building, it is understood. Wolf & Love and Gallagher, Shulman & Abrams were attorneys. George Karas and James Gryvas were brokers.

Roy D. Keohn has bought the remaining 145 acres of the old Edison White estate, on Telegraph road, Lake Forest, through John Griffith & Son for an undisclosed consideration. Mr. Keohn now has all of the former White estate, approximately 145 acres.

Will Address Architects.

William J. Mikella, director of the Planning Research Laboratories, Inc., will speak before the Illinois Society of Architects at its next monthly meeting this evening at the Architects' club, 1801 Prairie avenue. His lecture will be "Learning New Facts About Palms, Varnishes, Enamels and Lacquers by Research Developments in Testing." The National Tube company's department of metallurgy and research will show a movie of the manufacture of tubing beginning with the mining of the ore in Minnesota. Dinner will precede the talks at 6:30 p. m.

Cynthia M. Hodge has bought the twenty-one apartments at the northwest corner of 49th and Michigan from Hulda E. and Enoch J. Ekblad for a reported $125,000, giving as part payment the six flat building at 4911 Prairie avenue. James Turner, of H. C. Dean & Co., was broker.

Cotton Ginning to Jan. 15, 13,668,267 Bales This Year

Cotton ginning to January 15 this year was 13,668,267 bales as reported by J. E. Bennett & Co.'s statistician, compared with 12,501,447 bales for the same period last year and 16,616,075 bales for the same time last year. These private estimates have in the past been very close to the official returns. More reports from other sources are due the next few days and will closely reflect the full report as the trade sees it.

Trading was not heavy and the undertone easy following the action of Liverpool which closed 4 to 5 points net lower. American markets finished with futures in Chicago 4 to 14 points net lower, with other markets 1 to 11 points lower. Spots were 13 to 30c, with spot sales of 1,598 bales, while New York was unchanged at 20.40c, Houston 19.40c, and Galveston 19.50c.

A preliminary report of the census bureau says that 35,344,000 spindles were active in the United States on Dec. 31, against 20,625,172 spindles in 1928. Prices follow:

Peoples Gas Light and Coke.
M. W. E.—For the sixth consecutive year the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company has shown a new high record in revenues, net earnings, dividend disbursements, and output of gas.

The consolidated income account of the company and subsidiaries for 1928 shows $11.35 a share earned on its capital stock as compared with $11.16 a share earned in 1927.

Each month of 1928 showed an increase in gas sales over the corresponding month of 1927. Total sales of 40,947,250,000 cubic feet for the year represent an increase of 7.57 per cent over 1927.

Consolidated operating revenues for 1928 totaled $41,666,679, against $39,568,954 for 1927.

Consolidated net income was $6,371,397 for 1928, compared with $5,878,342 for 1927.

Net income of the parent company alone was $5,917,191 for 1928, against $5,499,330 for 1927.

The consolidated income account showed surplus for the year of $2,178,457 in 1928 as compared with $1,572,563 in 1927.

Consolidated profit and loss surplus stood at $2,545,652 at the end of 1928, against $2,599,598 at the end of 1927.

Current assets were $16,432,583 and current liabilities $9,442,387 at the end of 1928.

This left net working capital of $6,990,196, which compares with $5,861,221 at the close of 1927.

Dividends at the annual rate of $3 a share are being paid.

Last fall stockholders had the right to subscribe for additional stock at par ($100) to the extent of 10 per cent of their holdings.

The stock is high grade.

COFFEE.

A near record supply of live stock was handled at the Stock Yards yesterday, totaling 138,000 cattle, calves, hogs and sheep, the largest since February of last year. Total valuation of all kinds exceeded $4,500,000. Hog receipts at 90,000 were largest in nearly a year's time, with only ten daily totals on record standing larger. There have been only three totals above 100,000 since the opening of the Yards. The record at 122,749, was established Dec. 15, 1924.

Immense orders for hogs, on both local and shipping accounts reversed the trend of market following a 15¢ to 20¢ break yesterday and closing sales were barely 10¢ under last Saturday. Extreme top reached $9.15 after mid-season, the highest point of the day, comparing with a peak of $9.00 at the low time at the start, and $9.25 last Saturday.

Supply dwindles. The available supply dwindled to 13,000 before noon, bringing larger houses on the market earlier than was generally expected, and only 6,000 hogs were left at the close. The Armour and Swift houses obtained drives costing $8.45@8.50, compared to $8.00@8.15 for similar drives Saturday. Supplies of hogs which have been held back by severe snowstorms and extremely cold weather in the vicinity of Chicago, made up a big share of yesterday's immense supply. Only moderate supplies were reported at other points, the 11 market total, including Chicago, being smaller than the previous Monday.

Under stress of increasing supplies of short fed steers, cattle prices established new low levels for the season yesterday. Choice yearlings averaging

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

A Chicago Board of Trade membership sold at $42,500 net to the buyer, an advance of $1,500 over the previous sale three days ago. The price is within $2,500 of the recent high spot.

GRAIN TRADERS

Grain traders were more disposed to take a conservative view of the future course of wheat and corn values at the close. The sudden comeback after the break, however, tended to make them more careful about selling on declines as the absorption surprised them. After the close offers were the favorite amongst the pit operators.

WOOL AUCTION.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—(P)—The offerings at the wool sales today amounted to 8,000 bales, of which 7,000 were sold. Competition was good and there was a better demand for merino. Prices for all descriptions were maintained at the opening levels.

Is your business like the Automobile Industry
Or would you like it to be?

To build stronger cars yet lighter cars was once the serious problem of the automobile industry. To add strength with ordinary steel meant too much added weight.

The science of metallurgy pointed to alloy steels. Parts were made much stronger yet much lighter for the required strength.

An Interstate Metallurgist will gladly study your product. His expert knowledge and long experience will be most helpful in choosing the specific alloy steel to meet the special requirements of your product exactly. Write

A few of the original bulls on corn expressed the opinion at the close that the market would be put in better shape by a drop in prices for May

BLAIR & CO. INCORPORATED

When the Treasurer of Seattle visited 10 Wall Street

IN 1890 Blair and Company were made the fiscal agents for the first major issue of securities sold by the city of Seattle ($955,000 bonds). The bonds were signed in the offices of Blair and Company then located at 10 Wall Street, where they arrived in the custody of the City Treasurer.
He had travelled the breadth of the continent to deliver them in person.

Later, from the United States Government, the Panama Canal Bonds were purchased by this firm. In those years, working under the counsel of Blair and Company, the Chicago Drainage District was developed to further the financing of needed municipal improvements, including the construction of the Chicago drainage canal. Blair also purchased bonds making possible the World's Fair.

From these beginnings, Blair and Company early became recognized as bankers for governments and municipalities... handling large numbers of bond issues for cities, counties, and states of the West and the East.

Funds raised through these borrowings played an important part in developing particularly the western section of our country. Their bonds were sold to the large investing institutions, savings banks and insurance companies of the Atlantic Seaboard.

This wide contact with municipal investments represents but a part of a broad experience resulting from major activities in all fields of investment securities. Operating in principal cities throughout the United States with representation in all foreign centers of financial importance, the Blair organization offers to institutions and individual investors this broad experience and complete investment facilities.

AMERICAN DEPARTMENT STORES CORPORATION OF PENNSYLVANIA

(Subsidiary of American Department Stores Corporation)

6% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures

Convertible as described below at the rate of 40 shares of Common Stock of American Department Stores Corporation (parent company) for each $1,000 Debenture.

Dated December 1, 1928

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE IN NEW YORK, Trustee

Due December 1, 1948

The following has been summarized by Mr. S. W. Metzler, President of the American Department Stores Corporation of Pennsylvania and by Mr. L. E. Joy, President of the American Department Stores Corporation, from their letter to the Bankers and is subject to the more complete information contained therein, copies of which may be obtained upon request to the undersigned.

HISTORY AND BUSINESS: American Department Stores Corporation of Pennsylvania, a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Department Stores Corporation, has been organized to own a chain of department stores, chiefly in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and neighboring states. As an initial group it will acquire the corporations operating the seven retail department stores listed below:

| Store                                     | YearEstablished | Store                                       | YearEstablished |
|---|---------------------|---|---------------------|
| Wright-Metzler Co., Uniontown, Pa.        | 1907                | Metzger-Wright Co., Warren, Pa.             | 1896                |
| Wright-Metzler Co., Brownsville, Pa.      | 1926                | Metzger-Wright Co., Sheffield, Pa.          | 1922                |
| The Caldwell Store, Inc., Washington, Pa. | 1860                | J. M. Hartley & Son Co., Pottsville, W. Va. | 1877                |
| Th. Hartley-Round Co., Clarksburg, W. Va. | 1927                |   |                     |

All of these stores have well-established trade names and a proven merchandising performance and are modern retail units, advantageously located and commanding a large volume of business from prosperous contiguous territories.

SECURITY: These Debentures are to be the direct obligation of American Department Stores Corporation of Pennsylvania and in addition are to be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by the pledge to the trustee above named, of all the common capital stocks of the corporations operating the stores above-mentioned.

SALES AND EARNINGS: Consolidated operations of the stores for the three years ended December 31, 1927 (excepting in the case of the stores acquired by the prior owners during this period, as to which the operations are taken only from the date of acquisition), as certified by Messrs. Byrnes & Baker, Certified Public Accountants, showed average annual sales of $3,944,078.47. For the year 1928 this figure was $4,240,068.68, which is an increase of over 10% over the sales of the stores owned by the same interests during 1927. Consolidated net income for the three years ended December 31, 1927 averaged over 22 times the maximum annual interest requirement of $90,000 on this issue of Debentures to be presently outstanding and for the year ended December 31, 1927 over 24 times.

Total current assets as of September 30, 1928, as certified by Messrs. Byrnes & Baker, Certified Public Accountants, were $2,603,246.43, as compared to current liabilities of $869,769.49, a ratio of 2.9 to 1.

CONVERSION FEATURE: American Department Stores Corporation (the parent Company) has consented to reserve a sufficient amount of its no par value common stock to enable holders of these Debentures, at their option, to convert each Debenture into shares of its Common Stock at the basic rate of 40 shares of such Common Stock for each $1,000 principal amount of Debenture. This consent also contains protective provisions against the dilution of this conversion privilege. The common stock of American Department Stores Corporation is traded on the New York Curb Market.

MANAGEMENT: The management of the Corporation will continue in the hands of the men who have been largely responsible for the success of the above stores, several of whom have been elected directors of the American Department

Mr. Harry T. Rounds, President, summarizes in his letter to us as follows:

BUSINESS

Fabrics Finishing Corporation has been recently organized under the laws of the State of Delaware to acquire the business and substantially all the assets of the following five companies: Sussex Print Works, Flory & Son Piece Dye Works, Inc., Modern Central Silk Dyeing & Finishing Co., Inc., Diamond Silk Dyeing & Finishing Co., Inc., and Masson Dyeing Co., Inc.

The business will be one of service to manufacturers of and/or dealers in rayon, celanese and silk which must be converted—dyed, printed, weighted or finished—from the gown or raw state. The consolidation of the five companies will enable the Corporation to render a complete dyeing, weighting, printing and finishing service. Manufacturing no fabrics whatsoever, the Corporation will not be subject to the danger of price fluctuations or other inventory hazards. The service rendered by this industry is a necessity to the trade.

The Corporation will own five well equipped plants, three in Paterson, one in West New York and one in Newton, New Jersey, all within easy access of each other, and a fleet of motor trucks for the expeditious transportation of merchandise between its plants and the points of collection and distribution.

EARNINGS

The average yearly net income, available for dividends, after depreciation, interest on Series A Bonds, and Federal taxes at the annual rate of 12%, for the year and nine months ending September 30, 1928 (excluding loss of the Masson Dyeing Co., Inc., in the year 1927, in which its operations were partly conducted in a former plant and emporium processes not in use in 1928, in which year a profit was earned), certified by Messrs. Haskins & Sells, and after eliminating certain nonrecurring charges, including adjustment of salaries to the new basis, was $313,145.47, or

This Common Stock will be acquired from individuals and will not represent any new financing by the Corporation.

By ALICE HEGAN RICE

SYNOPSIS.
Hickory Hill has been the home of the Freers for generations. Cynthia Freer married to it by family obligation and a promise to her mother never to leave her. Her mother, Cynthia's mother, meets the new assistant rector of St. Timothy's church in town and invites him to Hickory Hill to meet her family. Aunt Lissy Freer, Dolly's mother, has been an invalid for twenty-five years, but she runs the family and its finances from her bed.
Clara Kelley, daughter of Uncle Julius Freer, arrives at Hickory Hill with her twin sister, who is married to her husband, Dr. Peter Kelley, in Paris.
Barney, Dolly's oldest son, is delighted at Clara's arrival and the cousins spend a great deal of time together. Barney is a wild youth, but the most popular of the Freer clan.
Barney is invited to stay with the Herbert Freers in town for a few weeks.

INSTALLMENT XX. A DISTURBING CONVERSATION.

As Barney poured forth his present project, Curtis watched him with satisfaction. Barney was still too thin and nervous, and there was too much color in his cheeks, but his eyes were clear and brilliant and his hands were quite steady. Curtis had reason to know that his conduct of late had been exemplary, and he could not refrain from congratulating himself.

"This is the surest bet on the market," Barney was saying, lapsing from the memorized patter furnished by his firm, to a headlong, youthful enthusiasm which was difficult to resist. "I've got four good business men to take fifty shares each. One more and I'll swing it. It's the chance of a life time Mr. Benson! You know I wouldn't let you take anything that wasn't absolutely safe. But it's a shame for you not to clean up a neat little sum when it's yours for the taking. Here, just look over these earnings for the last year!"

Curtis studied the sheet before him. He was the last person on earth to take risks. It had been the policy of his life to play safe in everything. But since taking a chance on coming to Kentucky, and meeting with success, his spirit instinct seemed to be developing. As chance would have it he had in the bank just about the amount Barney required. Why shouldn't he let the boy have the advantage of investing it? If four good business men had looked into the scheme and found it sufficiently promising to buy stock, then why should he hesitate to do so?

"If I agree to make this investment," he said slowly, "I want you to understand that it is solely on your account. I know nothing whatever about stocks, I am not even interested in them, but I do know young men. I believe you have made a great decision Barney, that you have definitely abandoned the old wild life and started on the upward path. I cannot tell earnings for the last year!"

As chance would have it he had in the bank just about the amount Barney required. Why shouldn't he let the boy have the advantage of investing it? If four good business men had looked into the scheme and found it sufficiently promising to buy stock, then why should he hesitate to do so?

"If I agree to make this investment," he said slowly, "I want you to understand that it is solely on your account. I know nothing whatever about stocks, I am not even interested in them, but I do know young men. I believe you have made a great decision Barney, that you have definitely abandoned the old wild life and started on the upward path. I cannot tell earnings for the last year!"

Curtis studied the sheet before him. He was the last person on earth to take risks. It had been the policy of his life to play safe in everything. But since taking a chance on coming to Kentucky, and meeting with success, his spirit instinct seemed to be developing. ## GASOLINE ALLEY—ANOTHER PROSPECT

You'll Shiver at This Movie, "The Terror"

Sound Heightens Effect on Audience.

"THE TERROR"

Produced by Warner Brothers. Directed by Roy Del Ruth. Presented at McVicker's theater. THE CAST: Dr. Redmayne.....Alec B. Francis
Ola Redmayne.....Mae Marvin
Mrs. Rivers.....Louise Fazenda
Alfred Kalmann.....John Miljan
Henry Goodman.....Holmes Herbert
Supt. Mark.....Otto Hoffman
Joe Connor.....Matthew Betz
Supt. Halliday.....Joseph Girard
Cotton.....Frank Austin
Pase.....Edward Everett Horton

By Mae Thine.

Good Morning!

And may you shiver as you watch "The Terror!"

Here is a movie thriller as is a movie thriller. Moreover the production talks. And yells. The things you see with your eyes and hear with your ears will give you a summary to think of on dark nights for a while!

London, they say, is getting much kick from the play (by Edgar Wallace) from which the picture has been made.

The action takes place in an English rest home that is presided over by a Dr. John Redmayne who has a beautiful daughter. The minute your eyes rest on the shadowy living room you KNOW that you are gazing upon a good place for a murder. You don't wait long before the sort of thing you surmise will happen—does happen.

I mustn't tell you the story.

Be assured, however, that you won't do any napping while the yarn is being unraveled before your goggling eyes.

Well cast hath "The Terror!" Good direction. Effective staging and photography. Some laughs and a LOT of thrills.

Here's wishing you gooseflesh!

Again the Audience Gives This a Hand!

"ABIE'S IRISH ROSE"

Produced by Paramount. Directed by Victor Fleming. Presented at the Roosevelt theater.

Abie Levy.....Charles Rogers
Rosemary Murphy.....Nancy Carroll
Solomon Levy.....Jack Benishoff
Patricia Murphy.....Patricia MacLennan
Isaac Cohen.....Bernard Goetz
Mrs. Cohen.....Ida Kramer
Father Whelan.....Nick Clegg
Rabbi Jacob Samuels.....Camillus Petal
Sarah.....Rosa Rosanova

"Abie's Irish Rose" seemed long drawn out and padded to me, but the rest of the folks over at the Roosevelt's first show yesterday seemed to think it was grand. Jewish patrons generously applauded the little Irish girl's hand, while the Irish present joined warmly in enthusiastic applause.

Charles Rogers, portraying young Abie Levy, portrayed by Charles Rogers. (Pretty hard NOT to like "Buddy" Rogers!)

You know, of course, that the picture is the re-creation of the play by Anne Nichols, that proved such a gold mine. The story is about the difficulties that beset the path of Abie Levy and Rosemary Murphy who meet and love overseas—where one is a soldier and the other an entertainer—come home and marry secretly and then have the Old Folks to contend with. Same being one Irish and one Jewish people.

Anxiously working in the cause of peace are a lovable Catholic priest and a broadminded Jewish Rabbi, most effectively portrayed by Nick Clegg and Camillus Petal. The entire cast is good. Nancy Carroll when she's entertaining leans a bit to affectation, but the rest of the time she's a sweet child.

Some of the subtitles are funny—"Take care of yourself, Abie, and don't get shot. Stay near the general" brought down the house. Also "MAYBE—you'll weep a tear or two."

The production was supervised by Anne Nichols. If you liked the play chances are you'll be keen about the picture.

See you tomorrow.

St. Olaf College's Choir Wins Praise with Concert Here

BY EDWARD MOORE.

The St. Olaf Lutheran choir, which is to other college choruses as a college degree to a grammar school certificate, came down from Northfield, Minn., to Orchestra hall, Chicago, last night to demonstrate once again the astonishing ability of their director, P. Moltis Christianen. His annual problem is annually solved. Once a year he takes the choir, necessarily changed by the graduation of some of its members and in introduction of new ones, and by let us say, Jan. 31 he has it moving again with all its unbelievable efficiency.

It is not as though he had trained singers to draw upon, but rather the contrary. You can pick out individual voices here and there through the body of the choir, and they are sturdy, healthy, honest voices, but not much more. Yet Dr. Christianen takes them, puts them through his course of training—about whose details, by the way, he maintains an impenetrable silence—and by the time he is ready to let them appear in public they are singing the most complex scores in the most professional and sure-footed manner.

They are not entirely infallible, it is true, but if they were they would hardly be human. Once in awhile they show signs of defining an a cappella performance as one which starts in one key and ends in another and lower one. But generally Dr. Christianen steps briskly in front of his white robed singers, raises his hand for the beat, and in less time than it takes to tell it, they are under way, having caught the pitch in some, and in a manner which is another of his and their secrets.

Their program was all a cappella last night, and all of sacred music. Bach, George Schumann, Elgar, Reger, Rachmaninoff, and others.

They are coming again on the evening of Feb. 11, and attendance is recommended as an amazing and wholly satisfying example of choral singing.

Jews Establish Synagogue in the H. O. Stone Building

A synagogue in the busy loop, where any Jew may offer daily prayer, will be established at an official ceremony on Feb. 4, it was announced yesterday by Charles Oliff, president of the Midwest branch of the United Synagogue of America. The synagogue will be located in the H. O. Stone building, 8 North Clark street.

Jewish Charities Session

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Jewish Charities association will be held this evening at the Covenant club. Rabbi S. B. Freehof will speak, and moving pictures of the work done at the organization's summer camp at Lake Woodstock will be shown.

The Question.

Do you favor Gov. Emmerson's proposal to abolish the parole board of Illinois?

The Answers.

C. S. Levenson, 1753 East 71st place, contractor—I believe the suggestion is good. The public has lost confidence in the Illinois parole board. The power of pardon is, by law, in the hands of the governor, though a fully qualified non-political commission gives valuable assistance to him.

Mrs. E. L. York, 7421 Bennett avenue, housewife—I believe the parole board as well as the parole system should be abolished. A court's sentence should stand; a life sentence should be a life sentence. Today a man is sentenced for a long term and tomorrow he's out—pardon. But if the sentence is unjust—well, why not have the courts rescind the verdict?

Joseph Stary, 643 Aldine avenue, tailor—Judging from the complaints we hear about the activities of the Illinois parole board, Gov. Emmerson has the right idea. Of course, no one wants to see an innocent person kept in prison, yet society does not want a once captured criminal turned loose to prey again on society.

Mrs. Anna Bloom, 3455 West Adams street, public school teacher—I am not so sure whether that suggestion is a good one or not. A parole board that uses its powers unjustly is worse than no parole board at all. On the other hand, a governor might use that power un-justly, too.

Carl Harry Sundberg, 19 South La Salle street, builder—That's a question. With a parole board the governor can pass the buck to them. Obviously, in the past the privileges of parole have been abused. Gov. Emmerson is, perhaps, in a better position and better qualified to straighten out this tangle.

Can Opener Makes Any Woman Chef, News for Mother

The beloved old saw about the superiority of mother's cooking was exploded by a series of shocks yesterday at the meeting of the National Canners' association at the Stevens hotel. There also the Canning Machinery and Supplies association and the National Food Brokers' association are meeting with the canners in the twenty-second annual convention.

Ben C. Nott, president of the canners, jeered at the theory that mother, regardless of how well versed in cookery she generally is, could prepare foods as scientifically and wholesomely as can the modern cannery.

"In our plants highly trained chemists, dietitians, and experts in sanitation search endlessly for novel methods of preparing edible products," Mr. Nott said. He compared this to a mother's joy if the preserved food was "just right" after she had spent an entire day over a kitchen range.

However, the American housewife cannot be fooled by inferior products, according to Miss Ruth Atwater, director of home economics for the canners. They, therefore, are proposing an amendment to the food and drug act making it compulsory for canners to indicate low grade merchandise on the labels of cans containing food of that character.

Early day canners were honored as pioneers last night by H. E. Lincoln, president of the National Food Brokers' association, who told of the struggle to overcome public aversion to eating anything that came from a tin can.

A sixteen strand necklace for mother could be made from the output of "red hats" in the United States for 1928, it was divulged yesterday to members of the Packers and Sausage Manufacturers' association at their monthly meeting in the Elks-club hotel.

W. H. Gausselein, secretary of the association, was the authority for those figures, which he said came from government and trade resources.

"And that's not all," he said. "Ninety per cent of the sausage in the world is produced in the United States. One-sixth of it is produced in Chicago."

The Really Becoming "Coiff" Fits In with Rest of the Figger

Why do fat faced women adopt a severe coiffure, I wonder. Some one, I suppose, has told them the flatter the hair, the thinner it makes the face look. The theory is as erroneous as the one about the tight sleeved dress making the arms look slender. They don't. A little looseness in the sleeve conceals the heavy outline. A tight sleeve exaggerates it.

I suppose it is as reasonable to ask: Why does a very thin faced woman adopt a skin-tight coiffure? She often is guilty, too. But a large round faced woman with her hair cut close to her head, short over the ears or drawn back off the ears entirely, looks so badly balanced you are shocked at the removal of her hat.

This business of becoming hairdress has long since passed the time when a mirror hanging over the wash tub was sufficient guide. The perfect "coiff" is evolved from a study of the figure from head to foot. And the idea is to have the head in perfect symmetry with the body. You can't look too heavy—but we don't see many of the wide and blowy hair-dresses, these days. The mistake is rather to obliterate the head and face, or to have them look like a man with a derby three sizes too small for him.

The very sleek coiffure calls for either youth, beauty or individuality so distinct as to set a woman apart, no matter how she wears her hair. It is trying. It's hard on the wrong features. It's aging—not as so many appear to think—youth dispending. It forces up into clearer view wrinkles and lines and expression.

One of the plump-faced women adopted her unbecoming style after seeing the haircut of a famous comedienne. She achieved the comic, if you can read comedy into a disfiguring thing about a woman, which I can't. But one, today, doesn't need to copy any favorite's coiffure. So wide in the latitude you can choose from a great variety of styles.

The only rule of smart hairdressing is that it is becoming, that it flatters the face, the neck, and the shape of the head. Of extremes the average woman and especially the woman of imperfect facial contour, must beware.

Bright Sayings of the Children

Bertie and Billie, my 8 year old twins, came in one warm day last summer with surprisingly clean faces and damp hair. As their father had forbidden them to go swimming in the lake when he was not with them, I held sternly. "Boy you have been swimming. What made you disobey your father?"

"Mother," Bertie pleaded, "we did not mean to. We only went to look on, and I made a mistake and went in and Billie followed." M. E. H.

Society Women Plan To Extend Work Woman's Exchange
By THALIA

Chicago society women who have for many years been spreading the good word of the Woman's Exchange here, are planning to extend their efforts to other parts of the state, by further enlarging the scope of their efforts this winter.

They are planning to add Palm Beach, Cal. and Phoenix, Ariz., to their annual schedule. The first of the winter sales, which always are smart affairs in their respective locales, will be at Mrs. William Waller's residence in Palm Beach, Fla., on Feb. 6 and 7. Several prominent persons from other cities including Mrs. Earl P. Cannon of New York City; Mrs. Ward Allen and Mrs. A. G. Thompson of Chicago are to assist Mrs. Waller.

The Miami Beach sale is set for Feb. 12 and 13, and the one at Ft. Ormond, Cal., for Feb. 20 and Feb. 21. Mrs. George H. Meade of Dayton, O., is to give the Alhambra place on Feb. 26 to 27, and, doubtless there will be a large group of Chicago women there to attend. The Pasadena sale most successfully one to be by Mrs. Robert Hunter's place on March 14 and 15, and the Santa Barbara one is to be at the John J. Mitchell estate, with Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. James Ward Thorne in charge, about 10 days later. The arrangements for the Palm Springs and Phoenix sales are not yet complete.

There was a large attendance at the musical and gala given in the name of the Friends of Opera company for the hotel ballroom yesterday afternoon. Frida Linder, Antonio Cortis, Eva Turner, Cesar Formicola and Edith Mason of the opera company gave the evening with Giacomo Spadolini and William Tyroler accompanying them.

There was some expectancy rife that Samuel Insull would speak, although something about the new opera company was being given the annual statement that he usually makes at the gala performance which is omitted this year, but the only speech making was the gracious few appreciative words of Arthur Meeker addressed to Mr. Insull on behalf of the Friends.

A buffet tea was served following the program from a long bank of tables set with silver candelabra with rose petals and spray of bouquets of white flowers interspersed with garlands of fragrant golden mimosa.

Across the hall from the Friends of Opera affair, the Junior League was having the first of its programs to be sponsored by the newly organized arts and interests committee. Mrs. Albert F. Madlener Jr., Mrs. Lithgow Mitchell, Mrs. Helen Arthur Morley and Edith Fairbanks, and Miss Elizabeth Poole gave solo, and Mrs. George S. Haskell, and Mrs. Madlener gave a jazz arrangement on two pianos which was one of the most interesting and popular events of the program.

Following the music, the league members had tea in the office of the organization upstairs. Several of the provisional members, including Mrs. Helen Arthur Morley, Mrs. Pertine, Mrs. James M. Hopkins Jr., and Miss Jane Rowe ushered.

It is likely that a fashionable audience will occupy the seats for "Rosalinda" at the Illinois theater, that have been taken over to raise funds for restoration of "Kenmore" at Fredricktown, Va. tonight. Mrs. Arthur Meeker is chairman of the Illinois committee which has been taking part in a movement to restore the colonial role, and other members are Mrs. Helen Arthur Morley, Mrs. Pertine, Miss Mrs. Morris I. Johnston, Mrs. M. Patterson, William B. McCluer, and Mrs. Chauncey McCormick. Miss Mary Meeker heads the corps of young women who are to sell programs, and some of those who have sales tickets include the committee members, of course, Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. F. Edson White, Mrs. James Ward Thorne, Mrs. Edna M. Swift, and Mrs. Ernest R. Imbrian.

The Visiting Nurses' association, of which Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy is president, is to hold its 59th annual meeting at the Buckhale hotel ballroom this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The 424 and 43d ward branch of the Women's City club is having an annual picnic and a fund drive at St. John's parish house. The committee in charge, including Mrs. Robert P. Bates, Mrs. John V. Farwell, Mrs. Herbert F. Perkins, Mrs. Charles Street, and Mrs. Charles S. Wyman, and Mrs. T. E. Use, and Edmond Jaroski, and his associates on the election board are to give they play, "A Day at the Poles," at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Edward J. Cudahy of 1591

CONSTIPATION IS THE PLAGUE OF RACE

Eat Fruits and Vegetables— Properly Flavored

The papers are full of statements and theories about constipation. The most common of the civilized people. What are the facts? A famous biologist was asked to state the case and he summed it up in the fewest words: "At least 90% of the people in this country are constipated in the diet. Eat bran, cereals, and fruits and vegetables with raw and cooked."

He went on to emphasize how much more pleasant it is to eat these healthful foods provided their delicate tastes and flavors are detected by the use of a sugarless sugar. He spoke of how hard it is to get children to eat cereals, so beneficial in diet, unless they are properly flavored. He asked us to remember that many healthful fruits would be pleasant to the taste without the fruit acids and delectable their remarkable flavors.

Sugar.

We should put it down as a safe bet that all human beings are made of sugar. There is plenty of fruit and vegetable sugar in their daily diet. Sugar, being nearly all such diets pleasant and easy to eat, is the delectable aid to the eating of fruits.

There is no substitute for sugar in the normal diet. Sugar is Nature's ideal flavor for healthful food.

Eat the things you need, and enjoy them. The Sugar Institute.

Elmer Spends Happy Evening Hearing W-G-N

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Listeners aspiring for membership in W-G-N's "The 100 Club" had a smiling last evening. The Radio Floorwalker musical entertainment, 7 to 7:30 last evening, is always filled with first rate orchestral music. One might say that the floorwalker is as critical with his advice for potential commodity purchasers.

The Gypsies' orchestra program from New York, 7:30 to 8:30, is excellent week after week, though without much change in style or color. Any of their programs would grade high in any critical test.

The new nationally famous New York 8:30 to 9:30 Family Party program, in another Monday evening feature that any listener in quest of the best in radio entertainment cannot afford to overlook. Last evening's was a special operatic concert, with four vocal soloists from the Metropolitan opera, a chorus of sixteen voices, and a concert orchestra. The announcer described it as a "miniature grand opera company." Their musical numbers were full of life and stir. The vocal soloists, "Flaunt" and the Triumphant March from "Aida," are some of the numbers typical of the program.

Henry Selinger's his weekly violin recital, 9:30 to 10, played eight selections, and each had an interest of its own. Schumann's "Bird as Prophet" must have delighted all listeners. This number is peculiar for the unusual tone coloring for a violin number. "Country Dances" (Beethoven), represented this composer in a bright and snappy mood. "The Zephyr," by Hubay, was a pretty work with a lot of speed in it.

P. L. GIRAULT JR. WILL BE BURIED THIS AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Peter L. Girault Jr., 39 years old, widely known insurance man who died Sunday at his home, 1312 East 49th street, three days after being stricken with influenza, will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Ludlow chapel, 47th and St. Lawrence avenue. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

For 22 years Mr. Girault had been connected with the Equitable Life Insurance company, being superintendent of middle western agencies at his death. Active publishers will be Louis Swift Jr., Richard Holmes, Frank H. Davis, Philip E. Hobbs, Sam Lustgarten, George Gill, Harry K. Wright and McClain Reinhart.

Mr. Girault was born in New Orleans in 1886, and came to Chicago in 1907. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Catherine Girault, two daughters, Rowena and Catherine, and his mother, Mrs. P. L. Girault Sr., and one sister, Mrs. Emma Stratton of Boston.

Italy Seizes and Destroys 2,000 False U.S. Passports

BY DAVID DARRAH.

(Chicago Tribune Service.)

ROME, Jan. 21.—Two thousand false American passports were sequestered and destroyed today as the police penetrated further into the ramifications of the band of emigrant bootleggers.

The police discovered today that one of the leaders, a Naples saloonkeeper named Landi, and his accomplice, Joseph Gagliardi, who did the printing of the false passport forms, had agents in New York who formed a most important link in their clandestine business. Landi's system of operation was to have his agent in the United States procure from the American authorities, in the name of an Italian citizen resident in the United States, a "permit" attesting to the fact that the Italian had lived some years in the United States.

Such permits are given by the American authorities, it appears, to Italians who wish to return for a visit of a few months to Italy and return to the United States without being subject to the Landi and his emigrant bootlegger received such a permit from the New York agent they faked, at the expense of the Italian, a "permit" attesting to the fact that the Italian had lived some years in the United States.

Italy Seizes and Destroys 2,000 False U.S. Passports

BY DAVID DARRAH.

(Chicago Tribune Service.)

ROME, Jan. 21.—Two thousand false American passports were sequestered and destroyed today as the police penetrated further into the ramifications of the band of emigrant bootleggers.

The police discovered today that one of the leaders, a Naples saloonkeeper named Landi, and his accomplice, Joseph Gagliardi, who did the printing of the false passport forms, had agents in New York who formed a most important link in their clandestine business. Landi's system of operation was to have his agent in the United States procure from the American authorities, in the name of an Italian citizen resident in the United States, a "permit" attesting to the fact that the Italian had lived some years in the United States.

Such permits are given by the American authorities, it appears, to Italians who wish to return for a visit of a few months to Italy and return to the United States without being subject to the Landi and his emigrant bootlegger received such a permit from the New York agent they faked, at the expense of the Italian, a "permit" attesting to the fact that the Italian had lived some years in the United States.

SANITARY
TO T. J.3 Trustees
Before Grand

(Pictures on back)
Timothy J. Crowe, former president of the sanitary district, was pictured yesterday by the jury yesterday by three associate trustees as responsible for the payment of the district's pay roll then carried. It has now been reduced. Crowe, a Democrat, a subpoena yesterday will be given a chance of the pay roll situation what he knows of the district affairs this signs an immunity to First Assistant St. Frank J. Loesch.

Assembly Quits
Another development was a demand, presented in the lower legislature at Springfield, pointment of a committee to go into every phase of the situation. The resolution by Representative Holcomb of Centralia, was read speaker's table. Speaker Shanahan announced considered in a committee next week.

The committee, if authorized to go into every phase of the pay roll scandal, plan it would right to subpoena witnesses and other necessary documents and would be authorized to employ the necessary clerical help.

Trustee King
Trustees Lawrence F. W. Miller, and John R. posing the Crowe-Thompson trustees, told the jury that all appointments the sanction of Mr. Crowe the employment committee in name only any function to perform.

Crowe seemed to constitute committee of one to recommendations.

Trustee King around of the jurors, it was he said that his campaign cost him approximately $17,500 a year.

"Can you explain why spend so much more salary is to secure the test", was one of the jury is said to have asked.

"Just a sucker," "Not unless it is because the trustee's reputation of the family and some associates wanted me elected."

The money for the contributed by members family and not one person contractors or corporations with the district, he offered to produce to show the contributions during his first campaign.

Trustee Lawler explained that their campaign small sums because the during a presidential year ago.

Trustee King left voluminous reports of the district for the 1928 to 1929. These reports an itemized list of all for that period. Records spent during the last year, are not yet available.

Discuss Boulevard
The expenditure of the building of McCormick was also discussed. said that this four million was handled by the firm of McGarry. He said the was put in because of for a road leading to a sewage disposal plant.

It is easy for you, only four years of it to marked Trustee King Miller in the testimony. Trustee Lawler was the of the day. He was mayor of only 20 of the found on the pay roll.
